Letter to Shareholders

Dear Fellow Shareholder,

2015 was a year of continued progress in moving forward the agenda of the bank. BMO reported good financial results and continued to build on the momentum in each of our operating businesses, while confirming how much our forward-looking investments in technology have been reshaping the bank and unlocking new sources of value for customers and shareholders.

Our business is built on relationships. Management is working to achieve industry-leading customer loyalty, drive productivity and efficiency, accelerate the deployment of digital technology, leverage our North American platform and support our customers where they operate – all the while maintaining a prudent approach to risk. Every decision we make points back to our fundamental promise to the people with whom we do business. The customer remains at the centre of the five strategic priorities that guide the bank.

Our Annual Meeting is a time for shareholders to hear about these priorities firsthand, to understand our progress to date, and to speak directly with management and ask them questions. It is also an opportunity for shareholders to vote on matters that affect our company. We are proud that over half of our shareholder base is made up of individuals – many of whom are customers and employees. We would like to acknowledge both individual and institutional shareholders for their support of the bank. Ultimately, all of our shares are held in the interest of real people, and we are attentive and responsive to those interests – because they are important to the owners of this company.

Our 2016 Annual Meeting of Shareholders will be held on April 5, 2016, at BMO's Institute for Learning in Toronto. The Institute is the centrepiece of our commitment to continuing education and advanced leadership development and increasingly, enabling innovation. We are constantly evolving to make our customers' banking experiences more personal and intuitive. Education is essential to that evolution. The IFL was built for everyone who works at BMO – and we are proud to showcase our commitment to them.

Your participation in the Annual Meeting is important. You can attend in person or online at www.bmo.com/home/about/banking/investor-relations/annual-general-meeting. Whether or not you join the meeting, every shareholder can participate by voting – and we encourage you to do so. We invite all shareholders to submit their proxy vote ahead of time. Whatever method you choose, your participation matters to your Board of Directors and the management team. Please make your vote count.

Please take the time to review this Management Proxy Circular and our 2015 Annual Report. In the Management Proxy Circular you will find an explanation of the matters on which we will be voting, along with detailed voting instructions. While you may register your position on proxy matters through the mail, there are clear benefits to opting for secure and instantaneous online voting.

In the 2015 Annual Report you will find detailed information about the bank's performance over the past fiscal year. The Annual Report is available on our website, along with the bank's quarterly results, presentations to the investment community and other useful information about BMO Financial Group.

The bank remains well positioned, and we are committed to delivering on our strategy with the involvement and support of our shareholders.

Your directors and the management team look forward to welcoming you on Tuesday, April 5.

We hope you will join the conversation.

Sincerely,

J. Robert S. Prichard
Chairman of the Board

Management Proxy Circular

Annual Meeting of Shareholders

The annual meeting of Shareholders of the Bank on April 5, 2016 is our opportunity to discuss the Bank's performance and our plans for the future. It is also your opportunity to vote on important matters. We encourage you to vote.

Management Proxy Circular

This circular provides Shareholders with important information to make voting decisions. References to "BMO", the "Bank", "we", "our" or "us" mean Bank of Montreal and, where applicable, our subsidiaries. References to "Shareholders" mean common shareholders of the Bank and references to "Shares" mean common shares of the Bank. References to the "Board" mean Bank of Montreal's Board of Directors.

Date of Circular

This circular is dated February 8, 2016, and all information, unless indicated otherwise, is as at that date.

Business of the Meeting

The meeting will cover the following five items of business:

1. BMO's Financial Statements

You can find BMO's consolidated financial statements for the October 31, 2015 year end in our 2015 Annual Report.

2. Electing the Board of Directors

Information about the director nominees starts on page 10. All nominees were elected as directors at the Bank's 2015 annual meeting of Shareholders. The directors you elect at this year's meeting will hold office from the close of the meeting until the next annual meeting or until their successors are elected or appointed.

If Robert Prichard or William Downe is your proxyholder and you have not given instructions on how to vote, he will vote for all of the nominees listed in this circular. If, for any reason, at the time of the meeting any of the nominees are unable to serve, and unless you have specified otherwise, Robert Prichard or William Downe may, at their discretion, vote for any number of substitute nominees.

Majority vote for directors

The Bank has a majority voting policy for the election of directors. If a director standing for election or re-election in an uncontested election receives more withhold votes than for votes, he or she must offer to resign. In such case, the Governance and Nominating Committee will recommend to the Board whether to accept or reject the resignation, and the Board shall accept the resignation absent exceptional circumstances. The nominee will not participate in the decision to accept or reject the resignation.

3. Appointing Auditors

The directors propose to appoint KPMG LLP as the Shareholders' auditors for the 2016 fiscal year. KPMG LLP has been one of the Bank's auditing firms since 1990, and became the Bank's sole auditing firm on November 1, 2003. If Robert Prichard or William Downe is your proxyholder and you have not given instructions on how to vote, he will vote for the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Shareholders' auditors.

Independence of auditors

We have a strict policy limiting other services that the Shareholders' auditors can provide to the Bank. Moreover, the Audit and Conduct Review Committee or its delegate pre-approves all services from the Shareholders' auditors in accordance with the Bank's Auditor Independence policy, either on a case-by-case basis or in annual budgets for specific services. This helps protect the audit function from conflicts of interest and helps ensure the independence of the Shareholders' auditors. A rigorous process is applied under this policy to ensure that all the services provided by the Shareholders' auditors comply with the policy and professional standards and securities regulations.

Shareholders' Auditors' fees

Aggregate fees paid to the Shareholders' auditors during the fiscal years ended October 31, 2015 and 2014 were as follows:

Fees ($ millions) (1)	2015	2014
Audit fees	$17.1	$17.3
Audit-related fees (2)	2.2	1.9
Tax fees	0.1	—
All other fees (3)	2.3	1.2
Total	$21.7	$20.4

- (1) The classification of fees is based on applicable Canadian securities laws and U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission definitions. Fees include the impact of a stronger U.S. dollar in fiscal 2015.
- (2) Audit-related fees for 2015 and 2014 relate to fees paid for accounting advice, specified procedures on our Management Proxy Circular and other specified procedures.
- (3) All other fees for 2015 and 2014 relate primarily to fees paid for reviews of compliance with regulatory requirements for financial information and reports on internal controls over services provided by various BMO Financial Group businesses. They also include costs of translation services.

4. Voting on our Approach to Executive Compensation

The governing objective of our executive compensation program is to align executive interests with Shareholders' interests. This objective is reflected in our philosophy of pay for performance based on competitive market practice, without encouraging excessive or inappropriate risk taking. You can find details of our executive compensation program starting on page 63.

The Bank believes that our approach to executive compensation is in the Shareholders' best interests, because executives and Shareholders share the common goal of success and improved Shareholder value. Independent studies commissioned by the Bank's Human Resources Committee support our approach.

We are asking you to vote on the way we compensate our executives. This vote is advisory and non-binding. However, it will influence how the Human Resources Committee looks at compensation in the future.

The resolution, which needs a majority vote to be approved, is:

"Resolved, on an advisory basis and not to diminish the role and responsibilities of the Board of Directors, that the Shareholders accept the approach to executive compensation disclosed in the Management Proxy Circular delivered in advance of the 2016 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Bank."

If Robert Prichard or William Downe is your proxyholder and you have not given instructions on how to vote, he will vote for this resolution.

You can contact the Corporate Secretary's Department with comments and questions on our executive compensation program or you can communicate directly with the Board of Directors. Applicable contact information is on page 43.

5. Considering Shareholder Proposals

The Shareholder proposals are set out starting on page 47, with only Shareholder proposal No. 1 being put to a vote. You may vote for, against, or abstain from voting on the proposal. If Robert Prichard or William Downe is your proxyholder and you have not given instructions on how to vote, he will vote against the proposal.

Voting Information

Items of business

At the meeting, you will vote on:

- Election of directors
- Appointment of the Shareholders' auditors
- Approval of approach to executive compensation
- Shareholder proposal No. 1

Each item of business, other than the election of directors and the appointment of the Shareholders' auditors, needs approval by a majority (more than 50%) of the votes cast in order to be approved.

Who Can Vote

You have the right to vote – one vote per Share – if you owned Shares on February 8, 2016, unless you are described below under “Who Cannot Vote”. On that date, we had 643,267,292 Shares outstanding.

Voting Instructions for Non-Registered Shareholders

You are a non-registered Shareholder if the Shares you own are registered for you in the name of an intermediary, such as a bank, investment dealer, securities broker or trust company. Most Shareholders are non-registered Shareholders. If you are a non-registered Shareholder, your intermediary will send you a voting instruction form with this circular. We may not have records of your shareholdings as a non-registered Shareholder, so you must follow the instructions from your intermediary to vote.

If you wish to vote in person at the meeting, insert your name in the space provided for the proxyholder appointment on the voting instruction form, and return it as instructed by your intermediary. Do not complete the voting section of the voting instruction form, since you will vote in person at the meeting. When you arrive at the meeting, please register with our transfer agent, Computershare Trust Company of Canada.

If you do not intend to attend the meeting and vote in person, you can either mark your voting instructions on the voting instruction form or choose another person – called a proxyholder – to attend the meeting and vote your Shares for you. In either case, you will need to complete and return your voting instruction form as instructed by your intermediary.

Voting Instructions for Registered Shareholders

You are a registered Shareholder if the Shares you own are registered directly in your name. If that is the case, your name appears on your Share certificate or a statement from a direct registration system confirming your shareholdings.

If you wish to vote in person at the meeting, do not complete or return the enclosed proxy form but bring it with you to the meeting. When you arrive at the meeting, please register with our transfer agent, Computershare.

If you do not intend to attend the meeting and vote in person, you can either mark your voting instructions in the voting section of the proxy form or choose another person – called a proxyholder – to attend the meeting and vote your Shares for you. In either case, you will need to complete and return the enclosed proxy form to Computershare.

Voting by Proxy

Choosing Your Proxyholder

The enclosed proxy form or voting instruction form names Robert Prichard or William Downe, each a director of the Bank, as your proxyholder. If you wish to appoint a different proxyholder, write that person's or company's name in the blank space on the form or, if voting online, in accordance with the online voting instructions. Your proxyholder does not have to be a Shareholder of the Bank.

Make sure your chosen proxyholder will attend the meeting and vote for you. If you do not appoint a different proxyholder in your returned proxy form or voting instruction form, then Robert Prichard or William Downe will vote for you.

How Your Proxyholder Will Vote

For the election of directors and the appointment of the Shareholders' auditors, you may either vote for or withhold. For other voting matters, except the Shareholder proposal, you may vote for or against. For the Shareholder proposal, you may either vote for or against or abstain from voting. If you have given voting instructions in your proxy form or voting instruction form, your proxyholder must vote according to those instructions. If you have not given voting instructions in your proxy form or voting instruction form, your proxyholder will decide how to vote. Your proxyholder will also decide how to vote on any amendment or variation to any of the matters in the notice of the meeting or any new matters that are properly brought before the meeting.

If you properly complete and return your proxy form or voting instruction form, but do not appoint a different proxyholder and do not give specific voting instructions, Robert Prichard or William Downe will vote for you as follows:

- for the election of the nominee directors to the Board
- for the appointment of the Shareholders' auditors
- for the advisory resolution approving the Bank's approach to executive compensation
- against the Shareholder proposal

Returning the Proxy Form

If you are a registered Shareholder, the enclosed proxy form tells you how to submit your voting instructions. Our transfer agent, Computershare, must receive your proxy by no later than 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Daylight Time) on April 4, 2016. You may return your proxy in one of the following ways:

Returning the Voting Instruction Form

If you are a non-registered Shareholder, return your voting instructions using one of the methods noted on the voting instruction form provided by your intermediary. Remember that your intermediary must receive your voting instructions in sufficient time for your intermediary to act on them. For your votes to count, they must be received by Computershare by no later than 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Daylight Time) on April 4, 2016.

Changing Your Voting Instructions

If you are a registered Shareholder and you change your mind about how you have voted before the meeting, you must deliver a signed written notice changing your instructions to one of the following people:

- the Chairman of the Board before the meeting starts or any adjourned meeting reconvenes

You may also change your instructions by voting in person at the meeting after registering with our transfer agent, Computershare, at the meeting.

If you hold Shares through the Bank of Montreal Employee Share Ownership Plan or Employee Share Purchase Plan, you may vote your Shares in one of the following ways:

- electronically by visiting www.investorvote.com and following the online instructions
- by following the Voting Instructions for Non-Registered Shareholders above

We Encourage You to Vote

We encourage you to vote. This circular is being sent to you for the purpose of soliciting proxies by the Bank's management for use at the meeting. Costs of the solicitation are paid by the Bank. We may also contact you by letter, email or phone call to ask you to vote, using our outside agency, D.F. King Canada. We expect to pay approximately $34,000 for their services, plus charges for any telephone calls.

- the government of a province or any of its agencies
- the government of a foreign country or any political subdivision of a foreign country or any of its agencies
- any person who has acquired more than 10% of any class of shares of the Bank

Also, if a person, or an entity controlled by a person, beneficially owns Shares that are, in the aggregate, more than 20% of the eligible votes that may be cast, that person or entity may not cast any vote on the Shares (unless permitted by the Minister of Finance).

To the knowledge of the Bank's directors and officers, as at February 8, 2016, no one person or entity beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, or exercised control or direction over more than 10% of the Bank's outstanding Shares.

^{*} Effective March 31, 2015, Mr. Wilson III was appointed to the board of directors of The Pension Fund Society of the Bank of Montreal.

- (1) "Independent" refers to the Board's determination of whether a director is "independent" under the standards adopted by the Board as described under the heading "Director Independence" on page 34. Mr. Downe is not independent under the standards as he is an executive of the Bank.
- (2) "Shares" refers to the number of Shares beneficially owned, or over which control or direction is exercised, by the nominee as at February 8, 2016 and February 6, 2015, the respective information dates of this, and last year's management proxy circulars.
- (3) "DSUs" refers to the number of deferred share units held by the nominee under the Deferred Share Unit Plans referenced on page 23 as at February 8, 2016 in respect of 2015 and February 6, 2015 in respect of 2014.
- (4) The "Total Amount at Risk" is determined by multiplying the number of Shares, DSUs and Units held by each nominee as at February 8, 2016 in respect of 2015 and February 6, 2015 in respect of 2014 by the closing price of the Shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") on each such date ($73.53 and $77.79, respectively).
- (5) "Minimum Required" refers to the minimum value of Shares and/or DSUs the director is required to hold under the Board's share ownership requirements. Under the fee structure adopted as of fiscal 2015, non-employee directors are required to hold at least eight times the cash portion of their annual retainer fee in Shares or DSUs. This is equivalent to the amount required under the prior fee structure which required Share and/or DSU holdings of at least six times the annual retainer. Newly appointed board members would be expected to build up the minimum share ownership requirement over time, which is accelerated by all remuneration being required to be paid in DSUs or in Shares until the requirement is met. See page 22.
- (6) "Total Amount at Risk as a Multiple of Annual Retainer" is determined by dividing "Total Amount at Risk" by the aggregate of the cash retainer and equity portion of the annual director fee ($200,000 under the current fee structure – see page 22 "Directors' Compensation and Attendance").
- (7) "Units" refers to the number of deferred share units under the Bank's Deferred Share Unit Plan for Executives, and restricted share units and performance share units under the Bank's Mid-Term Incentive Plan for Executives held by Mr. Downe as at February 8, 2016 in respect of 2015 and February 6, 2015 in respect of 2014. Note that Mr. Downe was not entitled to receive DSUs under the directors' Deferred Share Unit Plans referenced on page 23.
- (8) Mr. Downe's share ownership requirements as an executive of the Bank are described under "Executives are required to have an equity stake" on page 75. Requirements are determined as a multiple of base salary reported in Canadian dollars. Mr. Downe's base salary has been converted into Canadian ("Cdn") dollars at the average rate of exchange for the fiscal year as follows: for 2015, US $1.00 = Cdn. $1.2547 and for 2014, US $1.00 = Cdn $1.0937.
- (9) The market or payout values of vested share-based awards (DSUs) not paid out or distributed as at October 31, 2015 using the closing Share price on the TSX on that date ($76.04) were: Jan M. Continuing Education and Skills

Continuing Education

All directors are required to continuously advance their knowledge of the Bank's business, the financial services sectors in which it operates, emerging trends and issues and significant strategic initiatives.

To assist directors in understanding their responsibilities and updating their knowledge of issues affecting our businesses, we provide directors with an ongoing education program. The Bank's Governance and Nominating Committee is responsible for (i) overseeing the orientation program for new directors and committee members with respect to their Board responsibilities, the role of the board and its committees and the contribution individual directors are expected to make, and (ii) overseeing the programs for providing continuing education for all directors and committee members.

On an ongoing basis, the Bank provides many opportunities for directors to make site visits, and to read and hear about specialized and complex topics relevant to the Bank's operations. In particular, directors:

- receive timely access to comprehensive materials and relevant information prior to each Board and committee meeting;
- receive regular deep dive presentations on relevant topics; and
- have full access to our senior management and employees and participate in our Executives Meet Directors Program.

During the 2015 fiscal year, directors participated in educational sessions and received educational materials on the topics outlined below. They also received quarterly and ad hoc briefings on regulatory developments.

In 2013, the Governance and Nominating Committee oversaw the implementation of an online director education program (the Board Learning App.), developed in conjunction with the Bank's Institute for Learning, consisting of didactic learning via electronic medium and self-directed learning. Launched in April 2013, this learning application responds to the need for continuous financial industry and risk learning in support of the complex and evolving role of the Board of Directors at the Bank.

The content framework for the learning application consists of five core topic pillars: (1) financial industry (economic services and landscape created by the global management of money); (2) business of banking (the function and work of banks and banking within that landscape); (3) risk (how actions or activities could lead to a loss or an undesirable business outcome); (4) regulatory (how the rules and legislation are created, and enforced in terms of outlining responsibility and/or limiting duties); and (5) products & services (the things developed for and delivered to our customers, and the customers of other financial institutions).

In 2015, directors were provided with the following educational materials related to each of the five content areas. The learning application is updated quarterly with new materials, building on additional topics as they relate to the five core areas, the Bank's strategic priorities, and select other topics from time to time.

Directors' Compensation and Attendance

Directors' Compensation – Fiscal 2015

Starting in fiscal 2012, the Board adopted a flat fee structure for director compensation. The flat fee structure is simpler to administer and disclose and aligns better with the job of being a director of the Bank. A director's duty is to be available to assist and represent the Bank 365 days a year. Attendance at meetings is an important part of that but not the whole job. Providing advice outside of meetings, identifying opportunities for the Bank and generally being attentive to the best interests of the Bank at all times, including meeting increased regulatory requirements, are important elements of the role of the director. A flat fee structure better compensates for this responsibility.

Description of fee (a)	Amount
Annual retainer fee (including membership on two committees)	$200,000 ($125,000 in DSUs and $75,000 in cash) (b)
Fee for each additional committee (c) membership in excess of two	$10,000
Fee for each special Board meeting in excess of five per year	$2,000
Fee for each special committee (c) meeting in excess of five per year	$1,500
Chair retainer fees:
Chairman of the Board	$400,000 per year ($150,000 in DSUs and $250,000 in cash) (d)
Audit and Conduct Review Committee	$50,000 per year
Governance and Nominating Committee	$25,000 per year
Human Resources Committee	$50,000 per year
Risk Review Committee	$50,000 per year
The Pension Fund Society of the Bank of Montreal	$15,000 per year
Directors receive a $15,000 annual travel allowance where their principal residence is (i) 2 or more time zones away from Toronto; or (ii) across a border from Canada.

(a) We only pay non-employee directors. They are also reimbursed for expenses incurred in the course of carrying out their duties as a director.

(b) Subject to election by directors to take all or a portion of the cash retainer in additional DSUs (Deferred Share Units) or Shares – see below.

(c) Includes meetings of the board of directors of The Pension Fund Society of the Bank of Montreal.

(d) Includes the directors' annual retainer fee and all committee membership fees.

Directors' Compensation and Required Share Ownership

Each non-employee director must hold at least eight times the cash portion of the annual director retainer in Shares and/or DSUs based on the greater of the following: (i) the closing price of the Shares at the end of the fiscal year and (ii) their acquisition cost (for Shares) or value at the time credited (for DSUs). Newly appointed board members would be expected to build up the minimum share ownership requirement over time, which is accelerated by all remuneration being required to be paid in DSUs or in Shares until the requirement is met.

Directors receive a minimum of $125,000 of their $200,000 annual retainer fee in DSUs. The Chairman of the Board receives a minimum of $150,000 of his $400,000 annual retainer fee in DSUs. Directors may also elect to take all or a part of the cash portion of their annual retainer in additional DSUs or Shares. This election also applies to any fees for chair retainers and special meetings. For 2015, 12 of the 14 non-employee directors who served in fiscal 2015 elected to receive all of their remuneration in DSUs.

Shares and DSUs Owned by Non-employee Directors

February 8, 2016:

- Total Shares: 84,371
- Total DSUs: 308,364
- Total Value of Shares: $6,203,800
- Total value of DSUs: $22,674,005
- Total value of Shares and DSUs: $28,877,805

(based on the closing price of Shares on the TSX of $73.53 on February 8, 2016).

As at October 31, 2015, all non-employee directors met the minimum share ownership requirement, except for Mr. Eichenbaum and Ms. Mitchelmore who joined the Board on March 31, 2015.

What are Deferred Share Units (DSUs)?

DSUs (or deferred share units) are ownership interests that have the same economic value as Shares. Non-employee directors of the Bank and its subsidiary, BMO Financial Corp., receive DSUs under the terms of their respective DSU plans. The DSUs vest immediately, and accrue dividend equivalents when dividends are paid on Shares. Directors are not paid out their DSUs until they leave the Board and the boards of all Bank affiliates. At that time, they may receive payment for their DSUs in cash or in Shares purchased on the open market.

Statement of Corporate Governance Practices

At a glance

- Our high corporate governance standards reflect emerging best practices and meet or exceed legal, regulatory, Toronto Stock Exchange (“TSX”) and New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) requirements
- We monitor regulatory changes and best practices in corporate governance to ensure we have leading governance practices

Overview

Good corporate governance is important – to our shareholders, our customers, our employees, the communities we operate in – and to us. Being clear about our expectations around governance supports ethical conduct and allows us to do a better job running our business, and complying with the laws and standards that apply to us.

Good governance starts with our Board of Directors (“Board”). We get the Board composition and structure right by having well-informed people with diverse backgrounds, relevant experience, and independence from management. We gain from their expertise and pay them fairly in return. Directors sit on committees that specialize in key areas: audit and conduct review, governance and nominating, human resources, and risk review.

This document communicates our corporate governance practices to you, our Shareholder.

I. Board Structure

At a glance

- Our Board’s role is to enhance Shareholder value through a rigorous approach to accountability, performance and corporate governance
- Regular assessment of the Board ensures it has the appropriate number of members and diverse expertise to make effective decisions
- The Board annually reviews written position descriptions for the Chairman of the Board (“Chairman”), the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), committee chairs, and directors

Role of our Board

The Board provides stewardship, including direction-setting and general oversight of the Bank’s management and operations to enhance Shareholder value. The Board’s Mandate, set out on pages 44 and 45, outlines its general responsibilities. The Board Approval/Oversight Guidelines define its roles and responsibilities, plus those of management and also specify accountability within the Bank. The Bank Act (Canada) requires certain important matters, such as approval of financial statements and dividends, be approved by the Board and not delegated to Board committees.

The Governance and Nominating Committee defines our approach to corporate governance. This committee reviews our corporate governance framework, guidelines and practices to ensure they meet industry and Shareholder expectations, the regulatory environment, and best practices.

Composition of our Board

The Board considers its size annually, while the Governance and Nominating Committee does so regularly. At the beginning of 2016, there were 12 directors on the Board. Factors that are considered in determining Board size include the ability to ensure a high level of engagement of Board members, a high quality of discussion with management, the calibre and scope of its members' expertise, and the ability to ensure Board committees have sufficient members and the required expertise. The Board has adopted a written Board Diversity Policy to facilitate more effective governance. In so doing, the Board positions itself to be made up of highly qualified directors whose diverse backgrounds reflect the changing demographics of the markets in which the Bank operates, the talent available with the expertise required, and the Bank's evolving customer and employee base. A diverse Board helps us make better decisions. The Board Diversity Policy includes the goal that each gender comprise at least one-third of the independent directors, and the Governance and Nominating Committee considers this when undertaking the process of recruiting new Board members. The Board believes a relatively smaller Board size is more effective, while recognizing the need to maintain flexibility to address certain needs or opportunities as they arise. No additional person has been nominated, so the current 12 directors will stand for election at the 2016 Shareholder meeting. The Board believes the Board's current size of 12 directors is appropriate and effective. The Board has 4 women directors, representing 36.4% of the 11 independent directors.

Directors are elected for a term of one year. Between Shareholder meetings, the Board may appoint additional directors. The Board believes that its current membership has the expertise, skills, geographic representation, diversity, and size to make effective decisions and staff Board committees appropriately.

Key Position Descriptions

The Board reviews position descriptions (posted on our website) annually for the Chairman, the CEO, committee chairs, and directors. The Board develops the position description for the CEO, with that person's input, which is approved annually by the Human Resources Committee.

II. Independence

At a glance

- All nominees standing for election at the annual meeting of Shareholders are independent and unaffiliated, except William Downe, CEO
- The independent Chairman allows the Board to operate independently of management and gives directors an independent leadership contact
- In camera sessions, attended only by the independent directors, are held at every Board meeting and every committee meeting

Director Independence

The Board believes that it must be independent of management to be effective. The Board has adopted Director Independence Standards ("Standards") to assess whether a director is independent. The Standards use criteria from the definition of affiliated persons under the Bank Act (Canada) and definitions of independence from the Canadian Securities Administrators ("CSA") and NYSE. The Standards are on our website.

The Board, with help from the Governance and Nominating Committee, uses the Standards to assess personal, business, and other relationships and dealings between directors and the Bank and between directors and the Bank’s affiliates. The Board considers biographical material, reports, and questionnaires completed by directors as well as Bank records and reports, and information on entities with which the directors are involved. The Board considers these relationships keeping in mind both the importance to the Bank and the importance to, and impact on, the people and organizations with which the director has relationships.

The Board considers a director independent if he or she does not have a material relationship with the Bank or any of its affiliates that could interfere with his or her exercise of independent judgment. Certain relationships (for example, being an officer of the Bank) automatically mean a director is not independent. The threshold for independence is higher for members of our Audit and Conduct Review Committee, as the CSA and NYSE require.

William Downe has a material relationship with the Bank because he is the Bank’s CEO. Under the Bank Act (Canada), the Bank’s CEO must be a member of the Board. All other directors and nominees standing for election to the Board on April 5, 2016 are independent and unaffiliated. The Board’s policies limit the number of inside directors to two.

All members of the Audit and Conduct Review Committee meet the additional Canadian and U.S. independence requirements for membership on public company audit committees. While the Bank has lending, banking, and other commercial arrangements with some of the directors and entities they have relationships with, the Board is satisfied that those directors are independent under the Standards.

Information on the director nominees standing for election is on pages 11 to 18, which includes other public company boards on which they serve, the value of their equity holdings in the Bank, and their attendance record for all Board and committee meetings in fiscal 2015.

Board Interlocks and Outside Board Memberships

The Governance and Nominating Committee monitors the outside boards our directors sit on to determine if there are circumstances which would impact a director’s ability to exercise independent judgment and to ensure each director has enough time to fulfill his or her commitments to us. An interlock occurs when two or more Board members are also fellow board members of another public company. The Board has adopted a policy that no more than two directors may sit on the same public company board without the prior consent of the Governance and Nominating Committee. In considering whether or not to permit more than two directors to serve on the same board, that committee takes into account all relevant considerations including, in particular, the total number of Board interlocks at that time. Also, none of our Audit and Conduct Review Committee members may serve on more than three public company audit committees without Board approval.

The only Board interlock is between George Cope and Sophie Brochu, who are both directors of Bell Canada and BCE Inc. The Board has determined this relationship does not impair the exercise of independent judgment by these Board members.

The following table sets out interlocking board memberships of the Bank’s directors.

Company Name	Director	Committee Membership (at other public company)
Bell Canada/BCE Inc.	Sophie Brochu	Audit Committee, Corporate Governance Committee
	George Cope	N/A

Independent Chairman

The roles of Chairman and CEO are separate. The Chairman manages the Board’s affairs to ensure that the Board functions effectively and meets its obligations and responsibilities, including responsibilities to Shareholders. The position description for the Chairman, available on our website, sets out the Chairman’s key responsibilities, which include setting Board meeting agendas in consultation with the CEO and chairing all Board meetings.

The Chairman provides leadership to the directors and ensures the Board is independent from management. Each Board meeting includes time for independent directors to meet with the Chairman, without management present. Similar meetings also take place outside of Board meetings, discussion at which includes topics like succession planning, risk management and strategy. Each Board committee, during each of its meetings, also has a scheduled session without management present.

The Board has established a process for the appointment or a change in, and appointment of, the Chairman. That process is led by the current Chairman or, if he or she is being considered for reappointment, the chair of the Governance and Nominating Committee. That process includes identification of issues facing the Bank, individual consultations with all directors, as well as determination of the most appropriate process for the Board to make a final decision, which may involve deliberation and a vote if there is more than one person enjoying significant support. Under current Bank policies, the normal term for the role of Chairman will be five years with one possible renewal for a maximum of three years.

Other Independence Mechanisms

The Chairman and each committee can engage outside consultants, paid for by the Bank, without consulting management. This helps ensure they receive independent advice as they feel necessary.

III. Orientation and Continuing Education

At a glance

- New directors learn about our business through one-on-one meetings with the heads of each of our principal business groups
- The Governance and Nominating Committee is responsible for directors' continuing education

New Director Orientation

The Governance and Nominating Committee is responsible for orienting and educating new directors. The orientation program's purpose is to (i) provide new directors with the information necessary to understand the financial industry and board operations; (ii) provide new directors with the historical background of the Bank, including the current issues and opportunities BMO Financial Group is facing; and (iii) facilitate a smooth transition for new directors into their roles as Board members. Upon joining the Board and as soon as possible within the first six months following appointment/election, new directors are provided an orientation by the Chairman of the Board, the chairs of the Board committees (as applicable) and the CEO in order to gain an understanding of the Bank's history, culture, current status and strategic direction, including how the Bank differs from its peers. New directors also receive an orientation manual explaining our structure, director governance information, compliance requirements for directors, and corporate policies. The manual also has our bylaws, recent public disclosure documents, and agendas and minutes for Board and committee meetings for the preceding 12 months. New directors meet individually with the heads of each of our principal business groups and corporate functions to learn about our business.

Each Board committee also has an orientation program. New Board committee members receive an orientation manual for each committee on which they sit. New Members also have individual meetings with the committee chair and the head of the supporting corporate group, as well as with other senior officers (as applicable).

Continuing Director Development

The Governance and Nominating Committee is responsible for the continuing education and development of our directors. Directors receive presentations on Bank operations throughout the year. They also receive materials and reading recommendations from the Chairman, committee chairs, and the CEO. Topics include corporate governance, executive compensation, financial reporting and strategy, succession planning, key accounting considerations, risk assessment, cyber security and disclosure, and Canadian and U.S. securities law developments. Directors are also encouraged to participate in relevant external education seminars at our expense.

The Governance and Nominating Committee, in conjunction with the Bank's Institute for Learning, has developed a comprehensive and balanced online director education program consisting of didactic learning via electronic medium and self-directed learning. The Governance and Nominating Committee also coordinates issues-based discussions. Continuing education and development of our directors in 2015 is summarized on pages 19 and 20.

Directors identify their specific continuing education needs in discussions with management, the Board and committees. Committee meeting minutes are also provided to all directors who are not on the committee.

IV. Strategic Planning and Risk Oversight

At a glance

- Our enterprise-wide strategy is developed by management. The Board oversees the strategic planning process and reviews and approves our strategic plans
- The annual strategy session provides a forum for directors to give management constructive feedback on our strategic plans
- We are guided by an integrated risk management framework that is embedded in our daily business activities and planning process. The Risk Review Committee of the Board reviews our risk management framework on a regular basis

Strategic Planning

The Board reviews and approves our strategic plans, including key initiatives, opportunities, risks, competitive position, financial projections and other key performance indicators for each of our principal business groups.

An annual strategy session helps directors better appreciate planning priorities and progress made on strategic plans. Directors give management constructive feedback on our strategic plans and the strategy session itself. Feedback from directors and management is key to planning the next year's session. Directors receive updates on the progress of our strategic plans, including those for each principal business group, throughout the fiscal year.

Risk Oversight

Our enterprise-wide risk management framework, approved by the Board, is comprised of a governance structure that includes a robust committee structure and a comprehensive set of corporate policies, which are approved by the Board or its committees, together with supporting corporate standards and operating guidelines. This enterprise-wide risk management framework is governed through a hierarchy of management committees and individual responsibilities. All elements of our risk management framework are reviewed on a regular basis by the Risk Review Committee of the Board to provide effective guidance for the governance of our risk-taking activities. See pages 31 and 32 for information on the responsibilities of the Risk Review Committee. Further information on our risk management framework, including the risk oversight responsibilities of the Board and its committees, our risk appetite, risk policies and limits, is set out on pages 86 to 117 of our Management's Discussion and Analysis for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2015 (available on our website).

V. Ethical Business Conduct

At a glance

- Our Code of Conduct is rooted in our values and outlines our expectations for ethical behavior
- We support an ethical culture by providing an environment where concerns can be raised without fear of retaliation

BMO's Code of Conduct is rooted in our values and outlines our expectations for ethical behavior. The Code applies to all officers, employees and directors and is approved annually by the Board of Directors. In addition to mandatory training every year, all officers, employees and directors must confirm that they have read, understood, complied and will continue to comply with the Code. The Chief Ethics Officer is responsible for ensuring that awareness and understanding of ethical business principles are embedded in all aspects of our business and reports to the Audit and Conduct Review Committee of the Board on the state of ethical conduct in the organization.

A key element to fostering an ethical culture is providing an environment where concerns can be raised without fear of retaliation. We support this and provide various means for concerns to be raised and grant anonymity if the person raising the concern wishes. All concerns are investigated and proven breaches of the Code are dealt with swiftly and decisively.

The Board has also implemented whistleblower procedures for officers, employees and other stakeholders to confidentially and anonymously report concerns about accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters.

To ensure ethical and independent decision-making by the Board, we have a protocol to identify and deal with director conflicts of interest. Directors or executive officers with a material interest in a matter do not receive related Board or committee materials, and are not present for any related discussion or vote.

VI. Directors – Becoming a Director, Sitting as a Director, Assessment, and Resignation Policy

At a glance

- Shareholders vote for individual directors – not for a slate of candidates – and directors who do not get a majority of votes must offer to resign
- Directors must offer to resign if they do not attend at least 75% of meetings of the Board and committees on which they serve
- The Governance and Nominating Committee uses the results of assessments to recommend the mix of directors, process improvements, and continuing education opportunities
- Individual directors evaluate the Board, its committees, and each other
- Directors must hold eight times their annual cash retainer in common shares or deferred share units
- Directors cannot hedge their Bank of Montreal Shares or other securities

Becoming a Director – Nomination and Election of Directors

The Governance and Nominating Committee decides what skills and competencies the Board requires, assesses the skills of current Board members and identifies and recommends suitable director candidates, with assistance of professional search firms as needed. We believe our directors should have the highest personal and professional ethics and integrity and be committed to serving the interests of the Bank, our Shareholders and other stakeholders. The Governance and Nominating Committee assesses the need for skills to manage the Bank's risks and opportunities. This assessment helps determine if the Board needs new directors. In keeping with the Board's Diversity Policy, potential candidates are screened for several attributes including ethics and integrity, range of experience, good business judgment, areas of expertise, personal skills and qualities, gender, age, ethnicity and geographic background. The Governance and Nominating Committee also takes into consideration possible conflicts, and the candidate's ability to devote sufficient time and commitment as a director. The Board has set a goal that each gender comprise at least one-third of the independent directors.

The policy on majority voting to elect directors is described on page 5. See page 21 for a skills matrix setting out the skills and expertise of each of the nominee directors standing for election at the 2016 Shareholder meeting.

Board Tenure

Non-employee directors on the Board average seven years of service. Service ranges from one year to 17 years.

The Board approved a new approach to its Director Tenure Policy in 2009, as refined in 2011, 2013 and 2015, to ensure ongoing Board renewal, sustain Board performance, and add expertise. Directors who joined the Board prior to January 1, 2010 may serve until the earlier of when they turn 70 years of age or they have served 20 years. Directors who joined the Board on or after January 1, 2010, may serve until the earlier of when they turn 70 years of age or they have served 15 years. However, all directors will be allowed to serve for at least ten years, regardless of their age. In addition, the Chairman may serve a full five year term as Chairman, regardless of his or her age or how long he or she has been on the Board, and his or her term may be renewed for up to three more years. The Board has also approved term limits for the chairs of its committees – for committee chairs appointed after December 31, 2014, the normal term will be five years with a possibility of renewal for up to three more years. In exceptional circumstances, to further the best interests of the Bank, the Board may on an annual basis decide in individual cases to waive the term and/or age limits stated above for directors, the Chairman and committee chairs.

An officer will resign from the Board when no longer employed by the Bank. However, the Board may request a former CEO to continue as a director for a term not longer than two years.

Expectations and Responsibilities of Directors

Directors must devote sufficient time and energy to their role as a Bank director to effectively discharge their duties to the Bank and the Board. Directors are expected to review meeting materials in advance of meetings to facilitate discussion and to probe and, as appropriate, challenge management, while making informed business judgments and exercising oversight. Board meeting dates are established well in advance and directors are expected to be prepared for and to attend all required meetings. Annually, directors must attend at least 75% of all meetings of the Board and the committees on which they serve or offer to resign at the end of the fiscal year.

Director Compensation

The Governance and Nominating Committee annually reviews and benchmarks directors' compensation against their peer group to ensure it is competitive and consistent with the responsibilities of directors. The peer group used for such review and benchmarking is the same as used for the CEO compensation review as set forth on page 64, separated into two groups: primary (Canadian peers) and secondary (Canadian and U.S. financial firms of similar size). A flat fee structure was adopted in fiscal 2012 (see page 22 for further information about our director compensation philosophy). Directors' compensation is disclosed on pages 22, 23 and 24.

The Board approved amendments to the director share ownership guidelines, effective October 25, 2011, in conjunction with the adoption of its flat fee structure (see page 22). Each non-employee director must hold at least eight times the cash retainer portion of the annual fee in either Shares or deferred share units. Newly appointed board members would be expected to build up the minimum share ownership requirement over time, which is accelerated by all remuneration being required to be paid in DSUs or in Shares until the requirement is met. At February 8, 2016, all non-employee directors met the minimum share ownership requirements, except for Mr. Eichenbaum and Ms. Mitchelmore who joined the Board on March 31, 2015. Directors' current Share and deferred share unit holdings are listed in their respective profiles on pages 11 to 18.

The Board has adopted a policy prohibiting directors, senior executive officers and employees of the Bank from hedging their economic interest in Bank Shares, securities or related financial instruments.

Assessment of the Board, Committees, Directors, and Chairs

Each director annually completes an anonymous Board self-assessment survey, the results of which are compiled confidentially by an outside consultant, and has an annual one-on-one interview with the Chairman. The interview typically covers the operation of the Board, the adequacy of information provided to directors, Board structure, agenda planning for Board meetings, and strategic direction and process. The Board uses a skills matrix (see page 21) to review the skills of directors and the Board as a whole. The matrix outlines skills and experience based on broad categories relating to business and management skills and capabilities.

Each Board committee is separately evaluated through the annual survey. The assessment process is similar to that for the Board. It includes each director's views on the operation of the committees, the adequacy of information provided to committee members, and agenda planning for committee meetings, taking into account the relevant committee charters.

The annual survey also includes a peer evaluation process for feedback on the effectiveness of individual directors. Every director assesses the contribution of each of their peers relative to the performance standards for the director position description. The results are also compiled confidentially by an outside consultant. The Chairman receives the results of each director's peer assessment and meets with each director to discuss them.

The Governance and Nominating Committee assesses the Chairman's performance annually, with input from each director, taking into account the position description. The results are reviewed with the Board and the Chairman.

The contribution and effectiveness of each committee's chair are assessed annually against their respective objectives and the standards of their respective position description. The Chairman discusses the results with each committee chair individually.

The Governance and Nominating Committee monitors and tracks progress of improvement opportunities identified through the self-assessment process.

Resignation Policy

Directors must offer to resign if they:

- change their principal occupation,
- fail to receive a majority of votes for election at an uncontested Shareholder meeting, or
- fail to meet the annual 75% meeting attendance requirement.

The Governance and Nominating Committee will recommend to the Board whether to accept or reject the resignation, which resignation in the event of failing to achieve a majority vote at a Shareholder meeting shall be accepted absent exceptional circumstances.

VII. Committees of the Board

At a glance

- The Board's four committees each consist entirely of independent directors
- The roles and responsibilities of each committee are set out in formal written charters (available on our website)

The Audit and Conduct Review Committee—oversees the integrity of our financial reporting, the effectiveness of our internal controls (including internal control over financial reporting), disclosure controls and procedures, our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements and the organizational structure, resources and effectiveness of the finance, legal and compliance functions. This committee also reviews and assesses the qualifications, independence, and performance of the Shareholders' auditors.

It sets standards of ethical business conduct for directors, senior management, and employees and reviews the Bank's Environmental, Social and Governance Report & Public Accountability Statement. It oversees procedures for complying with self-dealing provisions of the Bank Act (Canada). It also monitors consumer protection measures and procedures for dealing with customer complaints, plus the use and disclosure of personal customer and employee information.

Its charter states that "[e]ach member of the Committee will be Financially Literate (or be willing and able to acquire the necessary knowledge within a reasonable period of time) and the Committee will have at least one Audit Committee Financial Expert." In addition to being independent, each member of the Audit and Conduct Review Committee is financially literate, as defined in CSA, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), and NYSE rules or standards. Jan Babiak and Philip Orsino are Audit Committee Financial Experts as defined by SEC rules. Definitions of "financially literate" and "Audit Committee Financial Experts" are found in the Audit and Conduct Review Committee Charter (available on our website).

See pages 26 and 27 for a report on this committee's membership and activities in 2015. Additional Information respecting this committee is set out in our 2015 Annual Information Form under "Audit and Conduct Review Committee Information".

The Governance and Nominating Committee—develops governance principles and guidelines for the Bank. It identifies and recommends candidates for election or appointment to the Board, and reviews our process for orienting and assessing the Board, its committees, and directors. This committee also reviews Shareholder proposals and recommends appropriate responses. Each year, the Governance and Nominating Committee reviews all Board committee charters, position descriptions, and the Board's mandate to confirm that they meet all regulatory requirements and best practices.

See pages 28 and 29 for a report on this committee's membership and activities in 2015.

The Human Resources Committee—helps the Board fulfill its oversight duties for the appointment, evaluation, compensation and succession planning of the CEO and other senior executives. It oversees the Bank's strategy for attracting, retaining and developing high quality leaders at all levels with the capabilities to execute the Bank's strategic goals. This committee has oversight over the philosophy and principles of compensation programs, the design and application of material compensation programs, and share ownership guidelines. This committee is responsible for ensuring the Bank's material compensation programs meet the Bank's compensation principles and risk profile and do not encourage excessive risk taking.

The Human Resources Committee works with a full-time executive responsible for talent strategies. It annually reviews succession planning for the CEO and all senior executives. This includes a thorough review of potential successors' capabilities and development plans. This committee also annually reviews the in-depth talent and succession report for the entire executive group. This assessment, which includes roundtable talent assessments of the Bank's executives, also details the current and projected leadership demographics, vacancy risks and capabilities and readiness of the successor pool. This committee also reviews detailed reporting on the profile, capabilities and development planning of the Bank's emerging leaders against the projected executive needs of the Bank. In addition, the Human Resources Committee assesses the enterprise's culture, including our progress against our diversity, inclusion and employee engagement strategy and representation goals for women, people with disabilities, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, the LGBTQA community and other groups.

Its charter states that "[a]ll members of the Committee will have, or acquire within a reasonable period of time following their appointment, a thorough understanding of issues related to human resources and compensation with particular emphasis on executive compensation and will strive to continually update their understanding." Please see pages 21 and 59 for additional details concerning the relevant experience of the members of the Human Resources Committee.

See pages 29 and 30 for a report on this committee's membership and activities in 2015.

The Risk Review Committee—helps the Board perform its oversight duties for identifying and managing risk and complying with risk-related regulatory requirements. At least annually, this committee reviews and recommends to the Board the Bank's Risk Appetite Framework. The committee also reviews the organizational structure, resources and effectiveness of the risk management function, management's evaluation of the performance of our risk rating systems, and the effectiveness of our systems for calculating risk-based capital requirements. In addition, it reviews and, as applicable, approves our risk management corporate policies, reviews and/or ratifies transactions involving a material amount of risk and recommends to the Board the limits and risk-taking authority to be delegated to the CEO.

Its charter states that "[a]ll members of the Committee should have, or be willing and able to acquire within a reasonable period of time following their appointment, the necessary understanding of issues related to risk management or related business experience." The Chair of the Risk Review Committee is the former Chief Risk Officer of a major U.S. financial institution. Please also see page 21 for additional details concerning the relevant experience of the members of the Risk Review Committee.

See pages 31 and 32 for a report on this committee's membership and activities in 2015.

VIII. Communications and Shareholder Engagement

At a glance

- The management Disclosure Committee oversees the timely public release of material information about the Bank
- Internal controls and procedures ensure material information is effectively communicated internally
- Our Shareholder Engagement Policy (available on our website) promotes open dialogue and the exchange of ideas with Shareholders

The Audit and Conduct Review Committee reviews and approves the Disclosure Policy every two years. The policy covers the timely distribution of all material non-public information. It sets out guidance for determining material information and ensures proper (non-selective) disclosure and wide distribution of material information.

The Disclosure Committee consists of members of senior management including the Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), who chairs it. This Committee reviews all annual and interim filings and oversees the timely public release of material information about the Bank. The CFO and General Counsel together decide what information is material and therefore publicly disclosed.

We have a rigorous attestation process to support the certifications by the CEO and the CFO on the adequacy of our financial disclosure. Our most senior executives must make representations (quarterly and annually) to our Chief Accountant. This includes declaring that any potentially material issues they know of have been escalated to the Chief Accountant under our financial governance processes. The representations are specific to the executive's area of responsibility.

Our Shareholder Engagement Policy encourages open dialogue and the exchange of ideas with our Shareholders. We communicate with Shareholders and other stakeholders through various channels, including our annual report, management proxy circular, annual information form, Environmental, Social and Governance Report and Public Accountability Statement, Corporate Responsibility Report, quarterly reports, news releases, website, industry conferences and other meetings. In addition, our quarterly earnings call is open to all, and features a live webcast and question and answer period. We also hold our annual meeting of Shareholders at different locations across Canada, with a live webcast, so all our Shareholders can participate. In addition, our website provides extensive information about the Board, its mandate, the Board committees and their charters, and our directors.

Feedback from institutional Shareholders comes from one-on-one or group meetings and from informal surveys by our Investor Relations department. Feedback from retail Shareholders usually comes by email or telephone. Our Investor Relations and Corporate Secretary's departments reply promptly to Shareholder concerns and take appropriate action. The Board believes these procedures reflect best practices in Shareholder engagement.

To communicate directly with the Board, Shareholders can use the contact details below, in item XII., "Contacting our Board".

IX. Gender Diversity in Senior Management

As part of the Bank's leading talent practices, we work to ensure diversity in our succession slates (which include 3 potential successors for every executive position), as well as in candidate slates for all open executive officer positions. To monitor our progress on the advancement of women and develop a healthy pipeline of female talent, we also:

- Identify top talent and implement development plans for high-potential women
- Monitor the number of women in senior leadership roles and those in the pipeline as emerging leaders at monthly talent roundtable meetings with senior leaders
- Have developed a sponsorship program connecting female talent with senior leaders to accelerate the development and advancement of high-potential women
- Identify and remove barriers that women commonly encounter in their careers to provide access to leadership and development opportunities

Our objective is to reach 40% representation of women in senior leadership positions (including the executive and managing director levels) by 2016. As of December 31, 2015, we were at 38%.

Our representation goals for women do not explicitly focus on our executive officer positions; however, our overall company goal creates a healthy feeder pool that supports planning and succession strategies at the most senior levels of the Bank. This focus allows us to ensure the continued growth of women among our senior leadership ranks. As of October 31, 2015, 2 out of 14 (or 14.3%) executive officer positions were held by women.

X. Compliance with NYSE Standards

We are required to disclose any significant differences between our governance practices and those required by NYSE standards for U.S. domestic issuers of which only one difference exists. The NYSE requires Shareholder approval for all equity compensation plans and any material changes to such plans (with a few limited exceptions). This applies whether the securities in a plan are newly issued or bought over the open market.

In contrast, the TSX rules, with which we have elected to comply, require Shareholder approval of equity compensation plans only if they involve newly issued securities. Additionally, the TSX requires Shareholder approval every three years of plans that do not have fixed limits of Shares to be issued. If a plan includes procedures for amendment, the TSX requires Shareholder approval of amendments only if the plan specifically requires that approval or if the amendment does any of the following:

- reduces the exercise price or extends the term of options held by insiders under the plan

- removes or exceeds limits on insider participation under the plan
- increases any fixed limit on the number of securities to be issued under the plan
- changes the amendment procedure of the plan

Shareholder Proposals

Mouvement d'Éducation et de Défense des Actionnaires (MÉDAC), 82 Sherbrooke Street West, Montreal, Québec, H2X 1X3 submitted the following proposal. An English translation and MÉDAC's supporting comments, in italics, are set out in full below.

Proposal No. 1

Streamlining Financial Reporting

It is proposed that the Board adopt an action plan to streamline financial statements and make them more accessible or establish a committee with small shareholders in order to streamline financial statements and make them more accessible.

For nearly 20 years now, MÉDAC has been reading numerous financial statements and annual reports. Throughout the years, we have observed an information overload and noted that financial information has become a tedious exercise of compliance that is losing relevance for shareholders. In short, annual reports are increasingly voluminous and, more often than not, confusing rather than informative for readers.

It is imperative that the Bank ponder such issue and commit over a certain period of time to revising its financial reporting in order to streamline it and make it more accessible. By way of example, the MÉDAC Worksheet presents, on a two-sided 8.5" x 11" page, the highlights of an organization's extra-financial and financial performance for the previous financial year.

From a financial point of view, such worksheets shall contain information allowing less sophisticated investors to assess the ability of a business to generate sustained profits as well as the level of financial security it may procure based upon its debt ratio, market capitalization and credit rating with rating agencies. From an extra-financial point of view, they provide an overview of improvements made by management to certain aspects of its corporate governance, including the roles and composition of the board of directors, the senior executives' compensation, the pay gaps between employees and managers, the presence of women on the board of directors, etc.

We offer our collaboration to participate in your streamlining committee and are making representations to the regulatory authorities and the Canadian Bankers Association to make this project a reality.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE AGAINST THIS PROPOSAL BECAUSE OUR CURRENT REPORTING FULLY COMPLIES WITH THE DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS THAT APPLY TO US, INCLUDES A NUMBER OF USEFUL SUMMARIES FOR SHAREHOLDERS AND HAS BEEN RECOGNIZED FOR EXCELLENCE IN FINANCIAL REPORTING.

The Bank complies fully with our continuous disclosure requirements, including financial disclosure obligations. In addition, there are a number of tools we give our shareholders to make our financial reporting more accessible and usable:

- Each quarter, we issue a press release which summarizes important aspects of our report to shareholders for the applicable quarter and fiscal year.
- Each quarter, we publish Investor Presentations on our website (www.bmo.com) that render our results more accessible to shareholders.
- During this past year, we simplified the Investor Relations section of our website to make it more intuitive and easier to use.
- We publish quarterly Corporate Fact Sheets on our website, with summary information for shareholders.
- Shareholders can listen to our quarterly analysts' calls for more information about our results and operations. They can also access on our website Investor Presentations that contain summaries of our results.
- BMO's 2015 Annual Report includes:
 - Financial Snapshot on page 2
 - Financial Performance and Condition at a Glance on pages 24 and 25

- 2015 Financial Performance Review and Supplemental Information sections
- Numerous graphs and charts that summarize important information for shareholders.
- The Bank's quarterly shareholder reports contain similar summaries of our results of operations.
- Our annual management proxy circular discloses information on the Bank's governance practices (including the roles and composition of the Board and its committees), senior executives' compensation, and the presence of women on the Board and in senior management positions. Our Statement of Corporate Governance Practices found therein begins with a corporate governance snapshot, and each section within it includes a brief summary.

It is also worth noting that Bank of Montreal won the 2015 Award of Excellence in Corporate Reporting for the financial services industry, awarded by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada (CPA Canada). Each year, CPA Canada assesses TSX-listed companies across multiple industry sectors, based on their financial reporting, corporate governance disclosure, electronic disclosure and sustainable development reporting. These awards are the most prestigious of their kind, and their intent is to raise the bar in corporate reporting best practices.

At BMO, we pride ourselves on being a responsibly-managed bank and holding ourselves accountable to all of our stakeholders. This means maintaining high standards of governance and transparency when we communicate with colleagues, customers, communities, and shareholders. Telling our financial story clearly, thoroughly, and transparently is important to us, and it's how we build trust with our stakeholders. That is why we continue to have discussions internally and with applicable external regulators on how to make the Bank's financial and other disclosures even more stakeholder friendly.

For these reasons, the Board recommends voting against this proposal.

Withdrawn Shareholder Proposals

The following three proposals submitted by MÉDAC were withdrawn. MÉDAC requested that the text of each one and the Bank's response be included in this circular.

Proposal No. 2

MÉDAC WITHDREW THIS PROPOSAL. NO VOTE IS REQUIRED.

Customer Service

It is proposed that the Board file a report on measures taken over the last year to increase customer satisfaction in the short to medium term.

According to a report released on July 31, 2015 by J.D. Power¹, one of the most well-known consumer products and services valuation firms, the pursuit of short term profits by Canadian banks has a detrimental effect on customer satisfaction, as evidenced by a significant increase of the average wait time in branch offices and rising miscellaneous fees.

Such performance is of great concern for shareholders since it can have serious effects on the Bank's performance in the medium to long term. According to an Accenture² study, 27% of all Canadian banking customers who would consider changing their bank would opt for a digital bank, i.e. a bank without branch offices. Another result of this study that raises some concerns is that younger customers of North American banks would be open to receiving banking services from technology businesses such as Google, Amazon or Apple. According to an Accenture Canada representative:

[Translation] "The rules are changing for banking services in Canada and the United States, and tomorrow's customers have a different view of what a bank should be. The expectations of these new consumers will have a disruptive impact on banks if the number of banks without branch offices increases and they do not adapt quickly."

Therefore, we are making this proposal in order to obtain more information on the Bank's strategy with regard to such new trends and on actions it intends to take in the near term to better meet its customers' expectations.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS' POSITION ON THE PROPOSAL IS SET OUT BELOW.

Customer experience and satisfaction is at the centre of both the Bank's vision and its long-term strategy. Our vision statement is "To be the bank that defines great customer experience", and we take this very seriously. It is at the core of everything we do.

We have taken numerous measures to increase customer satisfaction, and considerable information is available to shareholders on our website (www.bmo.com) in this regard. For examples, see some of our many related news releases or BMO's 2015 Annual Report, particularly pages 5-7 and 11-16.

Contrary to the proposal's assertion, the Bank does not pursue short-term profits at the expense of our medium- and long-term goals, which include achieving industry-leading customer loyalty by delivering on our brand promise.

In addition, the Board and management have discussed and approved strategies to deal with the numerous changes facing the banking industry from digital evolution and new types of competition, including changing the expectations of customers. These are some of the ways we are making customer interactions more flexible:

MÉDÁC WITHDREW THIS PROPOSAL. NO VOTE IS REQUIRED.

Term of Office

It is proposed that the Board of Directors (the “Board”) adopt a renewal policy for its directors by limiting the term of office of an independent director to 15 years.

Currently, two directors have been sitting on the Board of Bank of Montreal for 15 years or more, i.e. Mr. Philip S. Orsino and Mr. J. Robert Prichard.

Last year, the AMF and other Canadian regulators invited Canadian businesses to consider renewing their board in a more sustained way in order to make room for new talents, including women. In countries such as France, England and Australia, the issue of limiting the term of office is raised in the context of directors’ independence. Indeed, it may be argued that after a certain period of time, directors can no longer have the necessary hindsight to create added value in the decision-making process. Routine sets in and it becomes difficult to see the business in a different way than through traditional development paradigms. Although there should be a balance between experienced and newly-appointed directors, it is essential to bring new blood, including recruiting female and younger directors.

*According to a recent study entitled Zombie Boards: Board Tenure and Firm Performance, a director’s contribution hits a plateau after 12 years on a board. Such lesser contribution after a certain period of time is reflected, among other things, in the decisions concerning mergers and acquisitions, business strategies, innovation, financial accountability and compensation.*

Like all Québec and Canadian businesses, the Bank of Montreal must evolve in increasingly complex economic, technological and political contexts. We acknowledge that new directors must go through a familiarization period; however, it is in the interest of businesses to periodically renew their board of directors by seeking people who not only bring new skills, but can also analyze the business challenges with a new perspective.

Finally, we advocate for imposing term limits rather than age limits since we consider the latter as being discriminatory toward seniors.

Affected Directors

Philip S. Orsino*	Age 60, director for 17 years (since 1999)
J. Robert Prichard*	Age 67, director for 16 years (since 2000)

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS’ POSITION ON THE PROPOSAL IS SET OUT BELOW.

Bank of Montreal has had a policy on director term limits since January 2010. It is described more fully on pages 38 and 39 of this circular. As noted on page 38, the current independent directors average seven years of service as at the date of this circular, with four of the 11 independent directors being in their early/mid 50s and four in their late 50s/early 60s. In addition, our Board takes gender diversity very seriously, having adopted a Board Diversity Policy in 2012 which includes the goal that each gender comprise at least one-third of the independent directors, and the Governance and Nominating Committee considers this when undertaking the process of recruiting new Board members.

We believe that our current Board renewal program has worked well and will continue to serve the Bank going forward.

MÉDÁC WITHDREW THIS PROPOSAL. NO VOTE IS REQUIRED.

Paying One's Fair Share of Taxes

It is proposed that the Bank take part, like all other Québec citizens, in the effort to optimize Québec's public finances.

In his most recent economic update, the Québec Finance Minister, Carlos Leitão, announced an increase, effective as of December 3, 2014 until March 31, 2017, in the temporary contribution for salaries and wages paid by financial institutions. Such temporary payroll tax would increase from 2.8% to 4.48%. Following such announcement, it was reported in the media that the Canadian Bankers Association (CBA)¹ was working behind the scenes to get the Québec government to step back on this issue.

In such circumstances where everyone has to shoulder the load, one can question such reaction, especially given that the seven largest Canadian banks earned profits in the order of $33.4 billion over the last financial year.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS' POSITION ON THE PROPOSAL IS SET OUT BELOW.

The Bank complies fully with applicable Canadian (including Quebec) tax laws, and will continue to do so. For fiscal 2015, we paid $80.1 million in income taxes to the government of Quebec, which represented 12% of its total Canadian tax payments for fiscal 2015. This figure includes the government's surtax on bank wages, which amounted to $17.5 million.

The Canadian Bankers Association (CBA) wrote a letter on December 5, 2014 to the Honourable Carlos Leitao, M.N.A., Quebec's Minister of Finance, responding to his 2014 economic and fiscal update. That letter encouraged the Minister to eliminate the surtax on bank wages (both the temporary increase and the original temporary surtax) within the target period identified by the Minister, saying:

We support Quebec's efforts to strengthen its fiscal position by returning to balanced budgets, and understand the importance of ensuring that all elements of Quebec society contribute to this goal. At the same time, the CBA believes that a key part of any government's efforts to restore fiscal balance is maintaining a competitive tax framework to stimulate economic growth. Competitive taxes improve the standard of living for all Quebecers by helping to attract and retain quality jobs and investment, and thereby sustain important government programs. We also believe that corporate taxes should be neutral in their reach and not target one sector of the economy over another.

We support the CBA's submission but will, of course, comply with any tax laws that apply to us.

Message from the Chair of the Human Resources Committee

Bank of Montreal's vision is to be the bank that defines great customer experience, and its five strategic priorities provide direction on how to achieve that vision and create superior shareholder value.

We believe that BMO's success in achieving that vision depends on the strength and performance of its people. It's our job as the Human Resources Committee to make sure the Bank has strong leadership – and to link their compensation directly to achieving the Bank's goals.

To achieve its strategic priorities, the Bank establishes an annual business plan keeping in mind its medium-term financial targets as well as environmental and company specific-factors relevant to the particular year. It then creates annual performance goals with a range of incentive pool outcomes above and below the goals – you can read about this on page 66. In keeping with our philosophy of setting a high bar, the annual performance goals are challenging. This year, in fact, some of the goals that we set were more challenging than the reported performance of our Canadian peers for the year.

BMO performed well in 2015, achieving record performance at the total bank level and in Personal and Commercial Banking and Wealth Management. Specifically, adjusted EPS was $7.00, up 6% from last year, adjusted net revenue growth was 8% and contributed to growth in adjusted net income of 5%, and our one and three-year total shareholder return were above our Canadian peer group average. These achievements were made despite the fact that real GDP growth in both Canada and the U.S. was significantly lower than expected at the time the goals were set, offset in part by a strong U.S. dollar. In addition, interest rates in the U.S. did not rise as anticipated and actually declined in Canada which negatively impacted financial results relative to goals.

Importantly, the Bank made good progress on all of its strategic priorities. It developed further capabilities in digital banking, re-engineered its technology infrastructure, improved its cost structure to deliver greater efficiencies and acquired the Transportation Finance business of General Electric Capital Corporation, building on BMO's position as a market leader in commercial banking. In addition, Mr. Downe and the Board made tremendous progress in developing the next generation of organizational leaders and increased the overall representation of females on our leadership team. Employee engagement scores were higher than the average of North American and global financial institutions, as measured in 16 categories including innovation, employee voice, inclusion and confidence in senior leadership.

We're very pleased with these results and BMO's progress under Mr. Downe's leadership. He is the most experienced CEO among the Canadian banks and his continued guidance ensures the Bank is well positioned for growth and success in the years to come.

The net result for the year is that Bank and operating group performance were slightly below our challenging annual performance goals, so we set funding of the incentive pools slightly below target. Mr. Downe's salary is paid in U.S. dollars, reflecting his prior tenure of U.S. employment with the Bank. To adjust for the impact of the strong U.S. dollar on his base salary, we made a reduction to his variable cash compensation, bringing his total direct compensation to $10.155 million or 96.7% of his total target compensation. You can read more about pool funding on page 80 and Mr. Downe's compensation on page 82.

The Committee believes that compensation is effectively aligned with performance, shareholder interests and our peers. This has been confirmed year over year by good feedback from you, our shareholders.

Sincerely,

Ron Farmer
Chair

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

2015 OVERVIEW

BMO posted a strong finish to 2015, delivering record results and performance that was competitive against its peers.

2015 results (a)
Reported net income: $4.4 billion (up 2%)
Adjusted net income: $4.7 billion (up 5%)

Reported earnings per share: $6.57 (up 2%)
Adjusted earnings per share: $7.00 (up 6%)

Reported and adjusted revenue, net of CCPB (b): $18.1 billion (up 8%)

Reported return on equity: 12.5% (down 150 basis points)
Adjusted return on equity: 13.3% (down 110 basis points)

3-year TSR (c): 13.5% annualized

1-year TSR (c): -3.0%

- (a) Adjusted results are non-GAAP and are discussed in the non-GAAP Measures section on page 33 of BMO's 2015 Annual Report.
- (b) Effective the first quarter of 2015, insurance claims, commissions and changes in policy benefit liabilities (CCPB) are reported separately. They were previously reported as a reduction in non-interest revenue.
- (c) The average annual total shareholder return ("TSR") is calculated using the closing share price on October 31, 2015 and assuming reinvestment of dividends paid during the period. The Canadian peer group is comprised of the five other largest Canadian banks, excluding BMO.

In 2015, BMO's adjusted net income was $4,681 million, up $228 million or 5%. Adjusted EPS was $7.00, up $0.41 or 6% from record results in 2014. The Bank's five-year average annual adjusted EPS growth rate was 8%, in line with the medium-term objective of achieving average annual adjusted EPS growth of 7% to 10%.

The Bank continued to drive top-tier total shareholder return. Both its one-year and three-year TSR were above the average for the Canadian peer group and the overall market return in Canada.

In the past five years BMO has doubled its U.S. footprint, introduced award-winning customer technology and become a top 50 global asset manager, while refreshing the BMO brand to build on the value of trust and relationships to enhance customer loyalty.

There was stronger growth relative to Canadian bank peers in both adjusted net revenue and pre-provision, pre-tax profit, which is a reflection of good core operating performance. Adjusted net income was affected by lower credit recoveries and a higher effective tax rate relative to 2014.

Canadian P&C Banking, U.S. P&C Banking and Wealth Management all had record years in 2015. Canadian P&C earnings were $2.1 billion, up 4% from a year ago. U.S. P&C adjusted net income of $880 million was up 25% from a year ago in Canadian dollars, and was up 9% in U.S. dollars. Wealth Management's adjusted net income was $955 million, up 13% from a year ago, reflecting good organic growth and the first full year of benefit from the acquisition of F&C Asset Management plc, which has been rebranded as part of BMO Global Asset Management. BMO Capital Markets' adjusted net income was just over $1 billion, down a little from last year in part due to a prudent approach the Bank took to risk in the second half of the year characterized by meaningful shifts in volatility.

BMO ended the year with a strong capital position, providing flexibility to balance growth opportunities with returning capital to shareholders to maximize long-term value. Increased capital expectations for banks internationally have resulted in increased levels of common shareholders' equity over the last several years, which, all else being equal, negatively impacts return on equity. The Bank's adjusted ROE was 13.3% in 2015 compared to 14.4% in 2014, and its adjusted return on tangible common equity was 16.4% compared to 17.4%. The majority of the decline reflected the impact of the stronger U.S. dollar, which increased shareholder equity.

The Bank's strategic priorities have proven to be robust, providing consistent direction in the midst of evolving expectations, increasingly intense competitive activity and continued market uncertainty. In managing operations and risk, BMO recognizes that current profitability and the ability to meet its objectives in a single period must be balanced with the need to invest in the Bank's businesses for their future long-term health and growth prospects. The Bank has made good progress on its enterprise strategic priorities, including developing further capabilities in digital banking, re-engineering its technology infrastructure, optimizing its cost structure to deliver greater efficiencies, and acquiring the Transportation Finance business of General Electric Capital Corporation, building on BMO's position as a market leader in commercial banking.

BMO's 2015 five strategic priorities

1. Achieve industry-leading customer loyalty by delivering on our brand promise.
2. Enhance productivity to drive performance and shareholder value.
3. Leverage our consolidated North American platform to deliver quality earnings growth.
4. Expand strategically in select global markets to create future growth.
5. Ensure our strength in risk management underpins everything we do for our customers.

The Bank's good results are a reflection of its well-executed growth strategy, the benefits of a diversified business mix and successful execution against the strategic priorities. BMO continues to focus on improving efficiency and generating positive operating leverage, by driving revenue growth through a strong customer focus and maintaining disciplined cost management.

2015 performance and awards

Compensation at BMO is primarily determined by actual performance against financial goals that are directly linked to the Bank's strategic priorities.

BMO's medium-term financial targets establish a range of expected performance over time. The Bank establishes an annual business plan keeping these targets in mind, as well as environmental and company specific-factors relevant to the particular year. It then creates annual performance goals with a range of incentive pool outcomes above and below the goals.

Pool funding for the year is calculated as actual performance above or below these goals, and is expressed as a percentage of target.

BMO believes that setting a high bar motivates the organization to deliver strong performance and as a result it establishes annual performance goals that are challenging. Executives earn more in years where results are above the goals and less when they are below – you can read more about this on page 66.

The Bank performed well this year despite performance being slightly below our challenging goals. Funding of the incentive pools was therefore below target consistent with the formulas established at the beginning of the year, reflecting the actual performance of the business.

The Human Resources Committee of the Board (the "Committee") also reviewed performance compared to our peers, as well as a number of secondary considerations for the total bank and for each of the operating groups, but did not adjust the calculated performance factors or the overall incentive pool funding for executives.

Turn to page 80 for a detailed discussion of results against targets and the effect this had on decisions about 2015 executive compensation. Decisions about each of the Named Executive Officers start on page 82.

The Committee assessed Mr. Downe's performance this year and is pleased with the Bank's results and the progress it made under his leadership. Mr. Downe is the most experienced CEO among the Canadian banks, and this year he continued to make great progress in achieving the Bank's strategic priorities, and in working with the Human Resources Committee and the Board to develop the next generation of organizational leadership. Under his leadership, the Bank is well positioned for growth and success in the years to come.

Based on the Bank’s results this year, Mr. Downe’s 2015 total direct compensation was calculated at slightly below target. Mr. Downe’s salary is paid in U.S. dollars, reflecting his prior tenure of U.S. employment with the Bank. To adjust for the impact of the strong U.S. dollar on his base salary, we made a reduction to his variable cash compensation, bringing his total direct compensation to $10.155 million or 96.7% of his total target compensation. You can read more about Mr. Downe’s compensation on page 82.

Linking pay to performance

2015 CEO compensation continued to align pay with shareholder interests. To demonstrate this, the Bank carried out a study again this year to analyze historical one-year, three-year and five-year TSR for the five largest Canadian banks. The study, which was reviewed by the Bank’s independent advisor, confirmed that the CEO’s compensation continues to be appropriately aligned with the performance of the overall Bank.

The chart below shows five-year CEO realizable pay relative to five-year TSR. The chart is for 2010 to 2014 only, because 2015 peer compensation data was not available at the time of the analysis.

BMO’s five-year TSR was above average and ranked third among the five largest Canadian banks, and the CEO’s realizable pay over the same period ranked fifth. Similar to last year, the Bank’s independent advisor noted that Mr. Downe’s realizable pay was below that of the other CEOs as historically his relative target pay was lower than the median of BMO’s peer group. Given BMO’s strong TSR, the gap in realizable pay between BMO and its peers continues to get smaller.

Company	Annualized TSR	Annualized realizable pay ^(a)
Bank of Montreal	15.5%	$12.4 million
Peer A	12.1%	$16.0 million
Peer B	16.7%	$15.5 million
Peer C	15.9%	$12.5 million
Peer D	13.1%	$13.7 million

(a) Annualized realizable pay is one-fifth of total realizable pay over the five-year period. Realizable pay is aggregate base salary plus the annual incentive actually earned over the five-year period and, for equity granted during the five-year period, the value on settlement of the award plus, for awards which had not settled, the value of restricted share units and granted deferred share units with no dividend accumulation, the value of voluntarily deferred share units at their original grant value, the value of in-the-money stock options, and estimated value of payouts of performance share units assuming target payouts. Since realizable pay looks at the actual or estimated value of compensation after it is awarded, it is an appropriate method for assessing the impact of performance on our compensation decisions. Realizable pay is calculated before deducting compensation the CEO returned to the Bank.

Sound structure and approach

The Human Resources Committee is satisfied that executive compensation at BMO has the critical elements for a sound structure and approach.

BMO’s compensation programs are aligned with the Financial Stability Board’s Principles for Sound Compensation Practices, with the requirements of OSFI, the U.S. Federal Reserve’s Guidance on Sound Incentive Compensation Policies, and with the regulatory requirements of each of the jurisdictions in which the Bank operates.

Every year, the Committee also uses a disciplined approach in evaluating the incentive plan designs and compensation decision-making processes in BMO’s executive compensation program. This ensures that compensation is competitively aligned with BMO’s peers, a strong link between performance and compensation, and that BMO’s executive compensation program supports a culture of prudent risk-taking.

Turn to page 59 for more about the Committee, its experience and its approach to managing risk. You can read about the Bank’s approach to executive compensation starting on page 63.

COMPENSATION GOVERNANCE AND OVERSIGHT

The Human Resources Committee establishes and oversees the Bank’s compensation plans.

Six independent directors sit on the Committee. The average Committee tenure is seven years. See pages 11 to 18 for the directors’ biographies.

All of the Committee members meet the New York Stock Exchange requirements for compensation committee independence, established in 2013.

	Committee member since
Ronald H. Farmer (Committee chair since 2014)	2003
George A. Cope	2010
Christine Edwards (also a member 2011-2014)	2015
Lorraine Mitchelmore	2016
J. Robert S. Prichard (Chairman of the Board) (also a member 2000-2010)	2012
Don M. Wilson III	2009

Qualified directors

Committee members are required to have, or to acquire within a reasonable period of time after being appointed, a thorough understanding of issues relating to human resources and compensation so that the Committee has the expertise it needs to carry out its mandate.

Three of the members have gained experience in human resources and compensation by serving as chief executive officer (or equivalent) of a major organization. Three have experience serving on the compensation committees of other public companies.

The Governance and Nominating Committee looks at the mix of skills and experience of the directors on the Committee every year to make sure it remains appropriate. The table below shows the experience of the current members.

	Number of Committee members with specific experience or expertise
Human resources experience Experience with benefit, pension and compensation programs (in particular, executive compensation)	6 of 6
Risk management experience Knowledge and experience with internal risk controls, risk assessments and reporting	5 of 6
Executive leadership experience Experience as a senior executive/officer of a public company or major organization	6 of 6

New for 2015

The Board made three changes to the Human Resources Committee this year:

- Robert Astley ceased to be a member of the Committee upon his retirement from the Board on March 31, 2015.
- Christine Edwards rejoined the Committee on September 1, 2015, replacing Dr. Martha Piper. Ms. Edwards served on the Committee from 2011 to 2014.
- Lorraine Mitchelmore joined the Committee on January 1, 2016.

You can read more about these directors in their biographies starting on page 11.

Supporting a culture of prudent risk-taking

One of BMO’s strategic priorities is to ensure its strength in risk management underpins everything it does for its customers. This philosophy also applies to the Bank’s executive compensation program, and the directors on the Human Resources Committee are chosen in part for their knowledge of risk management.

Three members of the Committee also sit on the Risk Review Committee. Mr. Wilson, who sits on both committees, is the chair of the Risk Review Committee and has significant experience in financial institution risk management.

Directors are also BMO shareholders

All of the Committee members exceed the Bank’s share ownership requirements for directors, except for Ms. Mitchelmore who joined the Board on March 31, 2015 (see pages 22 and 23).

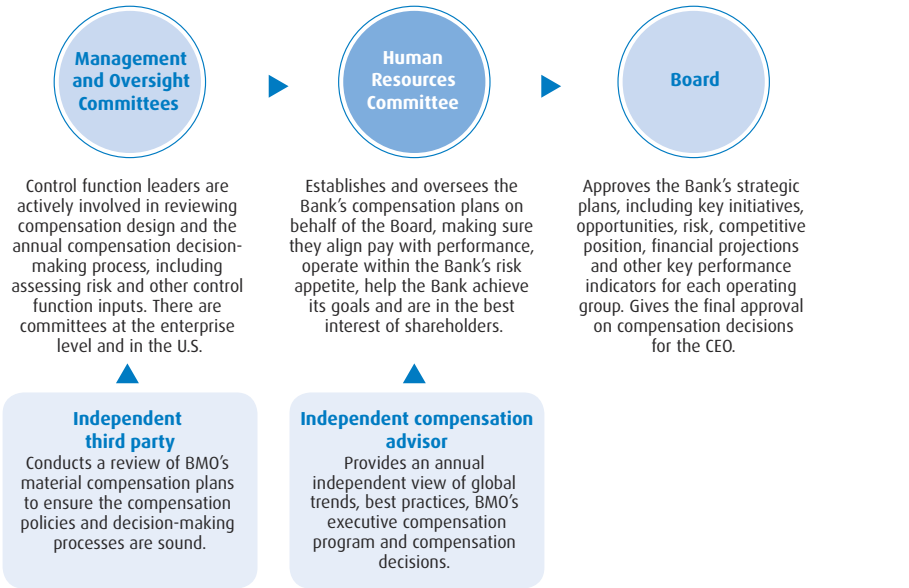

You can read more about the directors in the profiles starting on page 11 and the Committee and its activities in 2015 starting on page 29.

You can read more about how the Bank’s compensation policies and practices support a culture of prudent risk-taking starting on page 76.

Effective oversight

The Committee has a formal process for overseeing BMO’s compensation policies and practices. It works with management and two oversight committees that are actively involved in reviewing compensation design and the annual compensation decision-making process, which includes assessing risk and other control function inputs.

The Committee also works with an outside compensation advisor every year to get an independent view of global trends, best practices, BMO’s executive compensation program and compensation decisions. The Committee takes the information and recommendations the advisor provides into consideration, but also considers other factors, and is ultimately responsible for its own decisions.

About the two management oversight committees

Two management oversight committees are actively involved in reviewing compensation design and the annual compensation decision-making process, which includes assessing risk and other control function inputs.

Enterprise Compensation Oversight Committee

- established in 2011
- includes the BMO Chief Risk Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Compliance Officer and senior leaders from Human Resources, along with the Chief Auditor, Chief Anti-Money Laundering Officer and General Counsel as observers
- met 8 times in 2015

U.S. Compensation Oversight Committee

- established in 2012
- includes the U.S. heads of Risk Management, Finance, Compliance and Human Resources, the Anti-Money Laundering Officer, the U.S. Country Head, U.S. General Counsel and BMO’s head of compensation and performance, along with the U.S. Chief Auditor as an observer
- met 8 times in 2015

About the independent compensation advisor

Pay Governance LLC is an independent and unaffiliated executive compensation advisory firm that has been the Committee’s exclusive advisor on compensation issues since 2008. Pay Governance does not do any work for management.

In 2015, Pay Governance received US$244,808 for the following committee-related work:

- updates on emerging executive compensation and global regulatory trends, best practices and senior executive compensation benchmarking
- independent review and advice on the Bank’s material compensation plans, including the executive and BMO Capital Markets’ plans, CEO compensation and the CEO’s compensation recommendations for the Senior Executives
- review of the management proxy circular
- regular participation in Human Resources Committee meetings, including time with individual members.

	Billed in 2015	Billed in 2014
Executive compensation-related fees	US$244,808	US$276,208
All other fees	$0	$0

Testing for independence

The Committee carries out the following to make sure the compensation advisor is independent:

- reviews the advisor’s independence every year
- sets the advisor’s mandate and fees
- requires the advisor to get written approval from the Committee chair if, from time to time, the advisor is called upon to provide services to management
- does not approve work that, in the Committee’s view, could compromise the advisor’s independence
- discloses in the management proxy circular all work done by, and fees paid to, the advisor.

The Committee also reviews the advisor’s independence against the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission’s six requirements for independence. It confirmed in 2015 that the advisor:

- does not provide other services to BMO
- has effective policies and procedures to prevent conflicts of interest
- has no business or personal relationships with a Committee member
- has no business or personal relationships with an executive officer of BMO
- does not own BMO shares
- bills fees to BMO that are within an acceptable range of, and make up only a small percentage of, its total revenues.

Sound policies and practices

The Committee is satisfied that:

- BMO's compensation policies and practices do not encourage any executive or employee to take inappropriate or excessive risks
- no risks have been identified in the Bank's compensation policies and practices that are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Bank.

BMO's compensation policies and practices are fully aligned with the practices, standards and guidelines required by regulators and industry best practices:

- Principles for Sound Compensation Practices, issued by the Financial Stability Board ("FSB Principles")
- OSFI's practices, standards and guidelines
- the U.S. Federal Reserve's Guidance on Sound Incentive Compensation Policies ("FRB Guidance")
- international guidelines for financial institution compensation policies and practices in the jurisdictions we work in, including China, Hong Kong, Ireland and the United Kingdom.

Independent advice

Each year an independent third party also carries out a review of the Bank's material compensation plans to ensure the soundness of BMO's compensation policies and decision-making processes.

Global Governance Advisors ("GGA") carried out a review in 2015 and reported that BMO continues to be a leader in compliance with FSB Principles, OSFI requirements and FRB Guidance. GGA's review included:

- assessing compensation design
- assessing plan changes against the FSB Principles and FRB Guidance
- performing stress testing and back testing, payout curve analysis, extensive scenario analysis, and volatility analysis of the Bank's corporate and business unit results.

The Committee's oversight process, which includes management and two oversight committees and independent advice from third parties, ensures proper and effective oversight.

BMO'S APPROACH TO EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Board believes that the Bank's success in achieving its goals depends on the strength and performance of its people, and the Board believes that executive compensation programs are important tools in driving the Bank's success and growing shareholder value.

The Committee has structured the program to support BMO's vision and strategic priorities, and give executives a significant personal financial stake in the long-term growth of the organization. Bank results, compensation for executives, and financial returns to shareholders are all strongly connected in a way that does not encourage or reward inappropriate risk-taking.

See page 56 for BMO's 2015 strategic priorities.

Executive compensation at BMO has four core principles

The Committee has structured BMO's compensation program and policies to support its vision and strategic priorities, and to give executives a significant personal stake in the long-term growth and health of the organization.

Executives earn more when results are above our performance goals and less when they are below. This is accomplished by aligning executive awards to performance against Bank, operating group and individual performance objectives that support the achievement of our vision and strategic priorities.

The Committee also considers other financial and non-financial factors, including performance against the Bank's peers, the quality of its earnings and other factors (for more information about these factors see pages 68 and 72) to validate that the rewards earned align with the principles of sound governance and prudent risk management.

The Bank's results, compensation for executives, and financial returns to shareholders are all strongly connected in a way that does not encourage or reward inappropriate risk-taking.

Attract and retain executive talent	Link compensation to Bank performance	Encourage a long-term view to increase shareholder value	Align with prudent risk-taking
Compensation helps attract and retain talented people and motivates them to excel to achieve objectives	Executive compensation design and implementation must align with BMO's strategy and link to both Bank and operating group performance	A significant portion of variable pay for each executive is equity-based Each executive must meet share ownership requirements	Compensation structure does not encourage excessive risk-taking and rewards appropriate use of capital A significant portion of each executive's compensation is deferred

PRINCIPLE: Attract and retain executive talent

Compensation helps attract and retain talented people and motivates them to excel to achieve objectives

BMO’s executive compensation program is designed to be competitive with the market so it can attract and retain the top talent needed to achieve the Bank’s strategy, and includes a combination of total direct compensation and benefits.

TOTAL DIRECT COMPENSATION
FIXED	VARIABLE
Base salary	Short-term incentive	Mid-term incentive	Long-term incentive
Base level of pay for carrying out day-to-day responsibilities related to their position. It is paid as a fixed amount of cash.	Performance-based annual cash bonus to drive achievement of specific one-year business priorities and individual objectives.	Performance-based deferred incentive to focus performance over the medium term. Granted as restricted share units or performance share units.	Performance-based deferred incentive to motivate Senior Executives to create sustainable shareholder value over the long-term. Granted as stock options or deferred share units.

BMO offers all employees market competitive benefits and pension, Employee Share Ownership Programs (Canada) or Employee Share Purchase Plans (U.S.) and, for executives, an annual taxable cash allowance to support their business development activities and the role they play as ambassadors of the Bank.

Compensation and peers

The Committee assesses the competitiveness of its compensation program by comparing it to two groups: a Canadian peer group of the four other largest Canadian banks for Canadian-based executives, and a U.S. peer group of 10 regional mid-sized banks for U.S.-based executives. It also uses general industry surveys for non-industry specific roles to benchmark competitive pay more broadly.

For the CEO, the Committee primarily reviews the Canadian bank competitors and as secondary information considers Canadian-based insurance companies. For added calibration and a broader scope, the Committee also looks at the compensation practices of companies listed on the TSX 60 with similar market capitalizations, selected U.S. financial firms of similar size and scope, and the ratio of CEO pay to other employees of the Bank and to the Canadian median family income, as well as other factors.

When setting the level and mix of compensation for executive roles, the Committee reviews market data for comparable positions within the primary group, considering the relative performance and size of each institution, and the strategic importance of the role being reviewed. The target compensation level for individual executives also reflects the executive’s experience, sustained performance in the role and future potential.

The Committee’s independent advisor reviewed the comparable companies and roles used to benchmark target compensation and compensation mix for the CEO and Senior Executives, and concluded that they were appropriate.

PRINCIPLE: Link compensation to Bank performance
Executive compensation design and implementation must align with BMO strategy and link to both Bank and operating group performance

Bank of Montreal’s vision is to be the bank that defines great customer experience. Its guiding principle is to drive top-tier TSR and to balance its commitments to financial performance, customer loyalty and employee engagement. The Bank’s five strategic priorities provide direction on how this should be accomplished.

A substantial portion of executive compensation is variable or “performance-based”. Executives earn more when results are above our performance goals and less when they are below. This is accomplished by directly linking short, mid and long-term incentive pool funding to performance measures that:

- support business goals and reinforce the Bank’s vision and strategic priorities
- provide challenging but achievable performance goals that can be accomplished within the Bank’s risk appetite and requirements on compliance and ethics.

BMO’s medium-term financial targets establish a range of expected performance over time, including delivering top-tier TSR. The Bank establishes an annual business plan keeping these targets in mind, as well as environmental and company specific-factors relevant to the particular year. It then creates annual performance goals with a range of incentive pool outcomes above and below the goals. In keeping with our philosophy of setting a high bar, the annual performance goals are challenging.

Pool funding for the year is then calculated as actual performance above or below the goals and is expressed as a percentage of target.

Individual performance objectives are used to cascade the Bank’s strategic objectives and goals and to link the executives’ annual incentive awards to:

- quantitative objectives, such as revenue growth, efficiency, return on capital, profit growth and customer loyalty scores
- qualitative objectives, such as the executive’s contribution to the organization through leadership, demonstrated commitment to customers, teamwork, and innovation.

As part of its overall assessment of the link between pay and performance, the Committee also reviews other financial and non-financial considerations that contribute to the fulfillment of the Bank’s strategic objectives. See page 68 for more information about the secondary considerations reviewed.

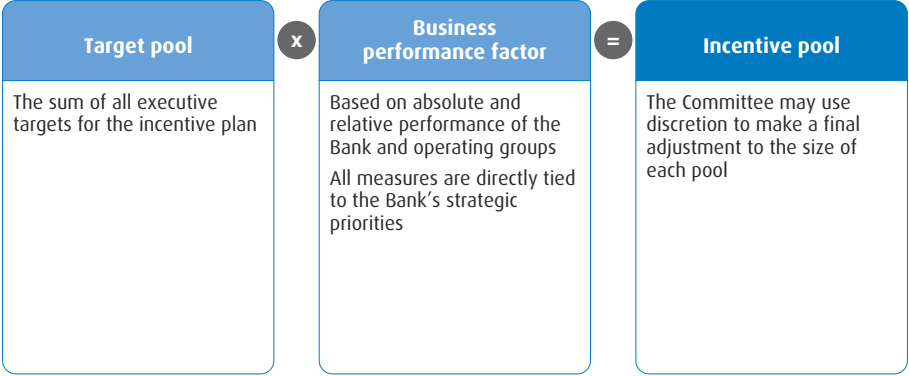

About the short-term incentive

The short-term incentive is a performance-based annual bonus designed to drive performance for the year based on specific Bank and operating group measures aligned with the Bank’s strategic priorities and the executive’s individual objectives. It is paid in cash after the Bank’s fiscal year-end results are finalized, usually in December.

Who participates	Link to performance	Terms
All executives	The award is adjusted based on performance against total Bank and operating group measures that align with the Bank’s strategic priorities and individual performance	Awards cannot be higher than 150% of the executive’s short-term incentive target, and can be clawed back (see page 77). Before the beginning of the fiscal year, participants may also decide to defer payment into DSUs. Deferrals are irreversible, vest when received but can only be redeemed when the executive leaves the Bank

How the short-term incentive is funded

Funding of the short-term incentive pool is based on BMO’s performance and is determined by a business performance factor that increases or decreases funding relative to target. It may also be adjusted based on a risk review and the Committee’s review of secondary considerations. The annual short-term incentive pool is calculated as outlined in the formula below and on page 68.

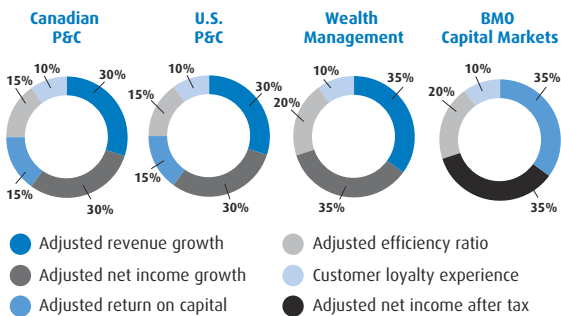

Business performance factor – 2015 weightings by role

	Bank performance measures	Operating group performance measures

Operating group executives	25%	75% – executive’s operating group measures
Corporate area executives	25%	75% – weighted average of all operating group measures

Operating group measures

Risk review and secondary considerations

The Chief Risk Officer looks at risk factors (including credit, market, liquidity and other important measures of risk) during and at the end of the year, to make sure risk is appropriately reflected in the funding recommendations.

The Management Oversight Committees review material risk events throughout the year and recommend adjustments as they see fit.

The Committee can also adjust the pools up or down for other financial and non-financial considerations not explicitly included in the business performance factor

Final pool funding

Funding of the pool can range from a minimum of 0% to a maximum of 150% of target.

The sum of the amounts awarded under each incentive plan cannot be higher than the total funding available in the approved incentive pool

Secondary considerations

The Committee has the discretion to adjust the pools based on other considerations:

Adjusted performance measures (a) relative to Canadian competitors

- EPS growth
- net income growth
- ROE (regulatory basis)
- provisions for credit losses as a percentage of loans and acceptances
- revenue growth
- expense growth

Other financial and non-financial measures

- significant non-recurring items (not identified as adjusting items)
- impact of acquisitions
- ROE (economic capital basis)
- impact of provision for credit losses versus expected losses
- people leadership and employee engagement
- future growth/earning quality metrics
- audit/compliance results

(a) Adjusted measures are non-GAAP and exclude the impact of certain items set out and discussed more fully on page 33 of the Bank's Annual Report. Management assesses performance on a reported basis and on an adjusted basis and considers both to be useful in assessing underlying ongoing business performance. Presenting results on both bases provides readers with a better understanding of how management assesses results. It also permits readers to assess the impact of certain specified items on results for the periods presented and to better assess results excluding those items if they consider the items to not be reflective of ongoing results which may facilitate analysis of trends, as well as comparisons with our competitors.

About the mid and long-term incentives

The mid and long-term incentives are performance-based forms of deferred compensation. They are equity-linked vehicles designed to motivate performance over the longer term. The Committee does not consider mid- and long-term incentive awards the executive currently holds when determining new grants.

Mid-term incentive

The mid-term incentive is designed to focus on performance over a three-year period. It is awarded as Performance Share Units ("PSUs") and Restricted Share Units ("RSUs").

PSU and RSU awards have performance granting conditions tied to business and individual performance. Payouts are tied to performance as well – PSU and RSU payouts are based on the price of BMO common shares at vesting. PSUs also include a performance vesting condition that adjusts the number of shares eligible to vest at payout from 80% to 120% based on BMO's three-year average return on equity.

The Committee has the discretion to adjust the incentive pool funding for mid-term incentives, as well as the final number of shares vesting down to 0% based on its assessment of other financial and non-financial considerations (see page 72).

New in 2015

To reinforce the link between pay and performance, and to emphasize the importance of generating a strong return on equity, starting in 2015 the mid-term incentive awards for all Senior Executives are granted as PSUs. The CEO has received his mid-term incentive as PSUs since 2013.

Long-term incentive

The long-term incentive is intended to motivate Senior Executives to create sustained growth in share price over a ten-year period or longer. It is awarded as stock options or as Deferred Share Units ("DSUs"). Both are awarded based on performance granting conditions tied to business and individual performance, and paid out based on the share price of BMO common shares at exercise or redemption.

The Committee has the discretion to adjust the incentive pool funding for long-term incentives, as well as the final number of shares redeemed or options exercised, down to 0% based on its assessment of other financial and non-financial considerations (see page 72).

The use of stock options has been reduced over the past few years to align with the interests of our shareholders and wider market practices:

- in 2013, stock options were reduced to 15% of total variable compensation for several senior roles.
- in 2014, stock options were eliminated for Vice-Presidents and reduced to 10% of total variable compensation for Senior Vice-Presidents. The amount previously allocated to options was allocated to other forms of equity compensation based on executive level (see page 70).

(b) Adjusted ROE is calculated as adjusted net income, less non-controlling interest in subsidiaries and preferred dividends, as a percentage of average common shareholders' equity.

(c) Awards can be forfeited or clawed back (see page 77).

How the mid and long-term incentives are funded

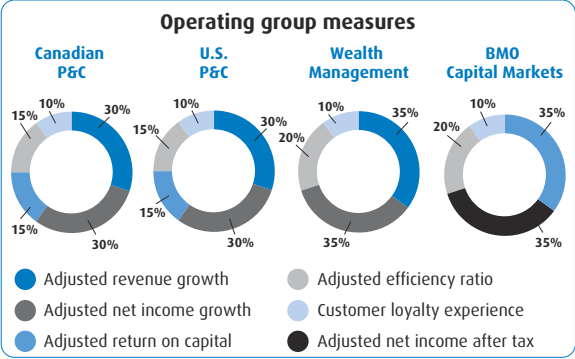

Funding of the mid and long-term incentive pools is based on absolute and relative performance and expressed as a business performance factor that increases or decreases funding relative to target. It may also be adjusted based on a risk review and the Committee’s review of secondary considerations. Absolute performance is measured using the same performance measures used for the short-term incentive plan, which are all tied to the Bank’s strategic priorities. Relative performance is measured using three-year TSR versus Canadian peers. Deferring the payout and linking it to share price encourages executives to make effective risk management a key component in the decisions they make for our customers.

The annual mid and long-term incentive pools are calculated as outlined in the formula below and on page 72.

New for 2016: changes to the short, mid and long-term incentives

Changes are being made to further enhance the alignment of incentive pool funding with the Bank's strategic priorities:

1. Customer: a customer loyalty measure will be added to the Bank performance measures, and its weighting will be increased for the operating group performance measures.
2. Efficiency: the efficiency ratio measure will be given a higher weighting for both the Bank and the operating groups to reinforce the importance of productivity throughout the Bank.

Annual decision-making process

Each year, the Committee uses a formal five-step process to ensure its compensation policies and decision-making processes are sound.

At the beginning of the year	Review corporate strategy The Board reviews and approves the Bank's strategic plans, including key initiatives, opportunities, risk, competitive position, financial projections and other key performance indicators for each operating group. It works with management to develop a deeper understanding of the year's priorities and how they relate to the overall strategic plan, and to give management feedback on alignment of the priorities. Set performance targets for the incentive plans to ensure alignment to strategy The CEO and management recommend the business performance measures, performance goals for each, and weightings that support the Bank's overall priorities for each operating group and drive the incentive funding. These are reviewed by the management oversight committees and control functions before they are recommended to the Committee for approval. Review incentive plan changes and set target compensation for executives The Committee reviews changes to incentive plan design and approves the target compensation for the Senior Executives. It also approves individual performance objectives for the CEO, and recommends the CEO's target compensation to the Board.
At the end of the year	Review and approve business performance factor outcomes and funding of incentive plans Finance determines the business results and calculates the business performance factor for each incentive plan (see page 80). Management and the management oversight committees work together to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• consider risk implications when assessing business results and the incentive pool calculations• recommend adjustments or holdbacks to reflect risk, compliance or other factors when necessary. Management and the management oversight committees review and recommend the funding for each incentive plan to the CEO, who then presents his recommendations to the Committee for approval. The control functions perform an annual review of business events that have exceeded pre-defined risk thresholds at both the U.S. and Enterprise levels, and may recommend adjustments to the incentive pools or to individual awards to the Committee. The Committee also has the discretion to adjust the size of incentive pools or equity payouts based on its assessment of other financial and non-financial considerations not explicitly included in the business performance factor (see pages 68 and 72).

Assess individual performance and award incentive compensation to Senior Executives

The Committee:

- determines the executive's individual incentive awards based on incentive formulas established at the beginning of the year
- assesses CEO and Senior Executive compensation against business performance and performance against individual objectives, including any reportable control deficiencies in risk, compliance or audit within the Bank and operating groups
- recommends the CEO's compensation to the Board
- approves individual awards for Senior Executives and awards for other employees that exceed a dollar threshold.

PRINCIPLE: Encourage a long-term view to increase shareholder value

A significant portion of variable pay for each executive is equity-based

There are share ownership requirements for each executive

A significant amount of executive compensation is deferred. This approach, combined with executive share ownership requirements, focuses the executive team on executing business strategies, sustaining performance and growing shareholder value over the longer term.

This also encourages executives to stay with the Bank and, as future payouts depend on their current decisions, serves to incent prudent risk-taking as well.

Emphasis on deferred compensation

Having a significant portion of executive pay as variable deferred compensation ties their compensation to longer-term performance.

Each compensation target mix reflects the executive's ability to influence business results over the short-term (one year), mid-term (three years) and long-term (10 years or more). Executives can choose to receive some or all of their short-term incentive in deferred share units instead of cash, which increases their amount of deferred compensation.

The percentage of variable pay for the CEO, Senior Executives and Executive Vice-Presidents is significantly higher than other executive roles because of their direct involvement in strategic decision-making and stewardship of the Bank.

BMO compensation aligns with FSB Principles, which recommend that the Bank's deferred compensation be:

- at least 60% of total variable compensation for Senior Executives
- 40% to 60% of total variable compensation for each employee at the Senior Vice-President level and above, and for certain employees in BMO Capital Markets who may have a material impact on the risk of the Bank

Deferred compensation makes up 68% of the CEO's target total compensation and 79% of his target total variable compensation, exceeding the FSB Principles.

Executives are required to have an equity stake

Executives are required to own equity in the Bank as outlined in the table below. They can count shares, performance share units, restricted share units or deferred share units towards meeting the requirements, and must meet them within three years of being appointed to their positions (five years for Vice-Presidents).

Share ownership is measured annually, either at market value at the time of assessment or the purchase value or grant date value (whichever is greater). The CEO and other NEOs currently exceed their requirements (see pages 84 to 92 for details).

The CEO and Senior Executives must continue to hold their shares after they leave the Bank, which mitigates risk and promotes strong governance practices.

The table below shows the target compensation mix for each executive level. Mid-term incentive awards are granted as PSUs for the CEO and, beginning in 2015, for all Senior Executives to reinforce the Bank's pay for performance philosophy.

	As a percentage of target compensation							Shares they must own while employed with the Bank	Number of years they must hold after they leave the Bank

All variable compensation can be forfeited or clawed back (see page 77).

PRINCIPLE: Align with prudent risk-taking

Compensation structure does not encourage excessive risk-taking and rewards appropriate use of capital

A significant portion of each executive's compensation is deferred

The Bank's focus on risk management is applied in its executive compensation program, aligning to the Bank's risk appetite and supporting the Bank's requirements on compliance and ethics.

Management recommends the risk appetite of the Bank and the Board approves it. The goal is to properly balance the level of risk-taking within the Bank with the achievement of its stated priorities and its responsibilities to help ensure the soundness and stability of the financial markets in which the Bank operates.

The Committee sets the compensation philosophy and strategy of the Bank within that context, and approves compensation programs designed to meet these requirements. The Committee also oversees an annual independent review to stress test and back test the Bank's material compensation plans, and to confirm their alignment to FSB Principles.

Working within the Bank's risk appetite

As a diversified financial services company active in banking, investment, insurance and wealth management services, BMO is exposed to a variety of risks that are inherent in carrying out our business activities. Having an integrated and disciplined approach to risk management is key to the success of the Bank's business.

To achieve prudent and measured risk-taking that aligns with BMO's business strategy, the Bank is guided by a risk management framework that is embedded in our daily business activities and planning process.

You can read more about Risk Management at BMO in the annual report beginning on page 86.

Plan design

The executive compensation program includes several design features to mitigate risk:

- a significant portion of executive compensation is deferred
- limit the use of stock options (in 2014 stock options were eliminated for Vice-Presidents, and reduced to 10% of total variable compensation for Senior Vice-Presidents and above)
- both absolute and relative performance are used to determine incentive pool funding
- a cap is applied to the short, mid and long-term incentive funding pools
- individual STIP awards for executives are capped at 150% of an executive's targeted amount
- business results used to determine incentive pool funding are reviewed against provisions for credit, market, liquidity and other important measures of risk
- return on equity is the primary performance measure used for determining the number of performance share units that vest at the end of a three-year period.

Oversight

The management oversight committees (see pages 60 and 61) conduct reviews of the design of the incentive plans to make sure risk, compliance, finance, audit and anti-money laundering considerations are appropriately incorporated, and to fully assess risk before finalizing incentive pools and individual compensation awards for material risk-takers.

Stress testing

BMO uses rigorous stress testing during business planning and when establishing financial targets. It also conducts stress testing at three stages of the compensation process to help make sure compensation decisions at each stage align with the Bank’s compensation philosophy and principles:

- analyzes and tests the impacts to compensation when designing and/or redesigning compensation plans
- review of the impact of year-end variable compensation on minimum regulatory and/or market capital requirements before any payouts are made
- each fiscal year an independent review is conducted to stress test and back test the Bank’s material compensation plans, and to confirm their alignment with FSB Principles.

Independence of control functions

Compensation for employees in Risk Management, Finance, Audit, Legal, Compliance, Anti-Money Laundering and Human Resources is tied to overall Bank performance and performance against individual objectives.

These employees do not report into the lines of business they support, nor does the success or financial performance of business areas they support or monitor directly impact the assessment of their performance or their compensation. This independence mitigates risk and encourages these employees to maintain their focus on BMO’s overall success.

Policies and other mechanisms

Award	Who it applies to	How it works
Clawbacks
Cash	Executives and BMO Capital Markets employees at the Managing Director level and above	All or part of variable compensation paid out in the past 12 months can be clawed back if the Bank restates its financial statements or there is qualifying employee misconduct. This includes cash bonuses and payouts from equity incentive plans.
Equity	All equity plan participants	Unvested RSUs, PSUs, and vested and unvested DSUs granted in 2013 and after, can be clawed back or eliminated if information is discovered that would have reduced the size of an award when it was granted. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the bank restates its financial statements• financial performance was materially below target because of excessive risk-taking• the Bank’s reputation was affected• the size of the award was based in whole or in part on information that turned out to be materially incorrect. Stock options granted after 2008 can be clawed back if the Bank restates its financial statements. Benefits associated with a participant’s unexercised options awarded in 2013 and after may be clawed back or eliminated if through the executive’s fraud, misconduct or gross negligence, BMO or BMO Financial Corp. suffers a consequential financial loss or is required to restate its financial statements.

Forfeitures
Equity	All equity plan participants	All unvested PSUs, RSUs, DSUs and vested and unvested options are forfeited when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a participant resigns or is terminated for cause • it is discovered that a participant who no longer works for the Bank committed an act while employed with the Bank that would have been cause for termination • a terminated participant solicits Bank employees • a retired participant solicits employees or customers of the Bank.
Anti-hedging
Equity	All equity plan participants (including Directors)	Employees and directors are prohibited from using any kind of personal hedging (for example, prepaid variable contracts, equity swaps, collars or units of exchange funds), to reduce the risk and shareholder alignment embedded in their mid-term and long-term incentive awards or other Bank shares or securities they hold.
Other mechanisms
Individual performance considerations	All employees	Managers consider risk, audit and compliance accountabilities during individual performance assessments and when making compensation decisions.
Limits on guarantees	All employees	Incentive compensation for new employees can be guaranteed for no more than 12 months, which the Committee considers to be a sufficient amount of time to transition into the Bank.
Change of control(a)	All equity plan participants	The stock option plan calls for a double trigger for accelerated vesting of stock options if the Bank undergoes a change of control. Stock options will vest immediately upon termination other than for cause. Unvested RSUs and PSUs continue to vest if there is a change of control or if the employee is terminated without cause.

(a) Change of Control occurs in the following circumstances: (i) 50% or more of the outstanding voting securities are acquired; (ii) all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation are sold, assigned or transferred other than to a subsidiary; (iii) an acquisition of the Bank via merger, amalgamation, consolidation, amalgamation or otherwise or dissolution of the Bank; or (iv) a change in a majority of our board members occurs.

(a) The average annual total shareholder return is calculated using the closing share price on October 31, 2015 and assuming reinvestment of dividends paid during the period. The Canadian peer group is comprised of the five other largest Canadian banks, excluding BMO.

Adjusted measures are non-GAAP and are discussed on page 33 of the Bank's 2015 Annual Report.

In 2015, BMO's adjusted net income was $4,681 million, up $228 million or 5%. Adjusted EPS was $7.00, up $0.41 or 6% from record results in 2014. The Bank's five-year average annual adjusted EPS growth rate was 7.9%, in line with the medium-term objective of achieving average annual adjusted EPS growth of 7% to 10%.

Adjusted net income growth was affected by lower credit recoveries and a higher effective tax rate relative to 2014. There was stronger growth relative to Canadian bank peers in both adjusted net revenue and pre-provision, pre-tax profit, which is a reflection of good core operating performance.

Canadian P&C Banking, US P&C Banking and Wealth Management all had record years in 2015. Canadian P&C earnings were $2.1 billion, up 4% from a year ago, with improved performance in the second half of the year. U.S. P&C adjusted net income of $880 million was up 25% from a year ago in Canadian dollars, and was up 9% in U.S. dollars. Wealth Management's adjusted net income was $955 million, up 13% from a year ago, reflecting good organic growth and the first full year of benefit from the acquisition of F&C Asset Management plc, which has been rebranded as part of BMO Global Asset Management. BMO Capital Markets' adjusted net income was just over $1 billion, down a little from last year in part as the Bank took a prudent approach to risk in the second half of the year in a period characterized by shifts in volatility.

BMO maintained a strong capital position through the year, providing flexibility to maximize long-term value by taking advantage of growth opportunities and returning capital to shareholders through dividend increases and share buy-backs. Increased capital expectations for banks internationally have resulted in increased levels of common shareholders' equity over the last several years, which, all else being equal, negatively impacts return on equity. The Bank's adjusted ROE was 13.3% in 2015 compared to 14.4% in 2014, and its adjusted return on tangible common equity was 16.4% compared to 17.4%. The majority of the decline reflected the impact of the stronger U.S. dollar, which increased book value and the higher level of capital held by the Bank in 2015.

Although the Bank did not meet its operating leverage objective this year, the continuing focus on improving efficiency and generating positive operating leverage while investing in the business, together with driving revenue growth through a strong customer focus and maintaining disciplined cost management, resulted in positive adjusted operating leverage on a net revenue basis in each of the last two quarters of 2015.

The Bank’s strategic priorities have proven to be robust, providing consistent direction in the midst of evolving expectations, increasingly intense competitive activity and continued market uncertainty. In managing operations and risk, BMO recognizes that current profitability and the ability to meet its objectives in a single period must be balanced with the need to invest in the Bank’s businesses for their future long-term health and growth prospects. The Bank has made good progress on the enterprise strategic priorities, including developing further capabilities in digital banking, re-engineering its technology infrastructure, optimizing its cost structure to deliver greater efficiencies and acquiring the Transportation Finance business of General Electric Capital Corporation, building on BMO’s position as a market leader in commercial banking.

The Bank’s good results are a reflection of its well-executed growth strategy, the benefits of a diversified business mix and successful execution against the strategic priorities. BMO continues to focus on improving efficiency and generating positive operating leverage, by driving revenue growth through a strong customer focus and maintaining disciplined cost management.

Funding of the incentive plans

To continue to move the organization forward in delivering growth, the Bank’s philosophy is to set financial targets that are designed to challenge the organization. We believe that setting a high bar motivates the organization to deliver strong performance and is consistent with our ambition to achieve first quartile performance relative to our Canadian peers. BMO’s above average three-year total shareholder return reflects its progress against this objective.

BMO’s medium-term financial targets establish a range of expected performance over time, including delivering top-tier TSR. The Bank establishes an annual business plan keeping these targets in mind, as well as environmental and company specific-factors relevant to the particular year. It then creates annual performance goals with a range of incentive pool outcomes above and below the goals – you can read about this on page 66. In keeping with our philosophy of setting a high bar, the annual performance goals are challenging.

The Bank performed well in 2015, achieving record performance at the total bank level and in Personal and Commercial Banking and Wealth Management despite the fact that real GDP growth in both Canada and the U.S. was significantly lower than anticipated at the time the goals were set, offset in part by a stronger than anticipated US dollar. In addition, interest rates did not rise as anticipated in the U.S. and actually declined in Canada which negatively impacted financial results relative to goals. Against this changing economic backdrop, while the Bank did not fully achieve its performance goals for the year, both its one-year and three-year total shareholder return were above the average for the Canadian peer group and the overall market return in Canada. Had the Bank achieved its adjusted earnings per share goal, it would have ranked first among its Canadian peer group.

Funding of the short-term incentive pool was below target consistent with the formula established at the beginning of the year, reflecting the actual performance of the business. The Committee also reviewed performance compared to our peers, as well as a number of secondary considerations for total bank and for each of the operating groups, but did not adjust the calculated performance factors or the overall incentive pool funding for executives.

Funding of the mid-term and long-term incentives was also below target consistent with established formulas, and reflecting the actual performance of the business.

Bank performance measures	How they’re used	2015 goal	2015 results	Combined effect on pool funding
Adjusted revenue growth, net of CCPB (a)	Absolute performance determines the funding of our short-term incentive pool and 50% of the mid- and long-term incentive pool	7.6%	8.5% (exceeded)	short-term incentives: below target
Adjusted earnings per share (EPS) growth		7.5%	6.2% (below)
Adjusted return on capital		14.1%	13.3% (below)
Adjusted efficiency ratio, net of CCPB (a)		62.7%	65.2% (below)
Three-year TSR relative to Canadian peer group (b)	Relative performance accounts for 50% of the funding of the mid- and long-term incentive pool	At or above the average	75 bps above the average (exceeded)	mid-term and long-term incentives: below target

(a) Effective the first quarter of 2015, insurance claims, commissions and changes in policy benefit liabilities (CCPB) are reported separately. They were previously reported as a reduction in non-interest revenue.
 (b) The three-year TSR calculated for compensation purposes differs from the three-year TSR reported above and in our 2015 Annual Report since it is calculated based on the average share price for the 90 days ending October 31, instead of on the closing price on October 31.

Shareholder returns

The chart below compares the cumulative value of $100 invested in BMO shares on October 31, 2010 with the cumulative value of $100 invested in each of two TSX indices for the same period. The chart also compares total compensation awarded to the CEO, the CFO and the three most highly compensated NEOs in each year. See page 83 for more information about how Mr. Downe's compensation aligns with shareholder returns.

(b) Includes base salary, annual short-term incentive payment, value of mid-term incentive awards at the time of grant, fair market value of the long-term incentive awards at the time of grant, other compensation and the annual pension service and compensation cost for the NEOs in each year.

(c) NEOs in 2015, 2014, 2013, 2012 and 2011 were W.A. Downe, T.E. Flynn and the three most highly compensated executive officers other than the CEO and CFO. In 2010, the NEOs were W.A. Downe, R.C. Robertson and the three most highly compensated executive officers other than the CEO and CFO.

Cost of management ratio

In response to a shareholder proposal received in 2005, BMO committed to working with other financial institutions to develop a cost of management ratio to be reported annually. This measure shows that BMO's executive compensation has remained relatively consistent over the past three years and remains below 1% of net income after tax.

	2015	2014	2013
Reported net income after tax ($ millions)	4,405	4,333	4,195
Total aggregate NEO compensation ($ millions)	31.6	32.5	30.2
Cost of management ratio as a percentage of net income after tax (%)	0.72	0.75	0.72

Total aggregate compensation is the total of base salary, short-term, mid-term and long-term incentives, other compensation and the annual pension service and compensation cost for NEOs in the Bank's management proxy circulars issued in 2013, 2014 and 2015.

The profiles that follow this section show the compensation that was awarded to each NEO for fiscal 2015, including the proportion of at-risk pay and deferred performance-based pay. Note that the amount each executive actually received in incentive compensation was based on pool funding as well as performance against individual goals.

(b) Mr. Downe's base salary is paid in U.S. dollars. The amount he receives is converted to Canadian dollars for compensation purposes using each fiscal year's average exchange rate:

- 2015: US$1.00 = Cdn$1.2547
- 2014: US$1.00 = Cdn$1.0937
- 2013: US$1.00 = Cdn$1.0235

Target for 2015

The Board reviewed Mr. Downe's target total direct compensation of $10.5 million and made no changes for 2015.

Performance in 2015

The Committee assessed Mr. Downe's performance this year and is pleased with the Bank's results and the progress it made under his leadership. Mr. Downe is the most experienced CEO among the Canadian banks, and BMO's performance in 2015 was good, surpassing the record highs of 2014, delivering record results in Canadian P&C Banking, U.S. P&C Banking and Wealth Management and total shareholder return that was above the average of its Canadian peer group. These strong results are a reflection of a well-executed growth strategy. Together with the benefits of the Bank's diversified business mix and Mr. Downe's work with the Human Resources Committee and the Board to develop the next generation of organizational leadership, Mr. Downe is strongly positioning the Bank for growth and success in the years to come.

Please see pages 28 to 29 of the 2015 Annual Report for a full discussion of BMO's performance against its strategic priorities in 2015.

Based on the Bank's results against its challenging goals this year, Mr. Downe's 2015 total direct compensation was calculated at slightly below target. Mr. Downe's salary is paid in U.S. dollars, reflecting his prior tenure of U.S. employment with the Bank. To adjust for the impact of the strong U.S. dollar on his base salary, we also made a reduction to his variable cash compensation, bringing his total direct compensation to $10.155 million or 96.7% of his total target compensation.

Incentive awards

Mr. Downe's incentive awards are based on Bank performance. The Bank performed well but overall results were slightly below the challenging goals it set for itself in 2015. As a result, funding of the short-term incentive pool was below target. Funding of the mid-term and long-term incentives was also below target, but to a lesser extent because the Bank's three-year TSR performance was better than the Canadian peer group. See page 80 for details.

Target for 2016

The Board reviewed Mr. Downe's target total direct compensation and did not make changes for 2016.

Aligning pay with performance

One of the governing principles of BMO's compensation objectives is to align compensation with shareholder interests. Deferring compensation is one way to ensure this.

The table below shows Mr. Downe's total direct compensation over the last five fiscal years, and its current value compared to shareholder value. He was appointed to his current role in 2007.

Fiscal year	Total direct compensation			Shareholder value $(c)
	Value at time of the award ($)	Value on Oct 31, 2015 $(a)	Value on October 31, 2015 as a percentage of value at the time of the award (%) (b)
2010	9,542,600	12,719,715	133	158
2011	9,876,250	14,592,577	148	154
2012	9,204,000	11,948,093	130	146
2013	9,479,375	9,679,377	102	114
2014	9,944,979	8,967,145	90	97
Weighted average			121	134

(a) Mr. Downe's total direct compensation as measured on October 31, 2015 includes:

- actual salary and cash incentive payments received in the year of award
- the actual value received from vested share units and option exercises that were granted during measurement period
- the October 31, 2015 value of share units that have not vested
- the October 31, 2015 in-the-money value of stock options awarded
- compensation received in US$ has been converted into Cdn$ (see page 82 for foreign exchange rates)

(b) The value of Mr. Downe's total direct compensation measured on October 31, 2015 as a percentage of his total direct compensation in the year of the award.

(c) The cumulative value at October 31, 2015 of $100 invested in shares on November 1 in the award year, including reinvested dividends.

Share ownership

Mr. Downe exceeds his share ownership guidelines.

Mr. Downe must consult with the Committee chair before he exercises any of his stock options. This ensures proper oversight of the Bank's compliance with trading regulations and governance best practices.

Pension

The Human Resources Committee capped Mr. Downe's pension at US$1 million (current value Cdn$1,307,500), which he reached in 2012 (see page 96). This amount is payable immediately on an unreduced basis, and will not increase based on additional years of credited service or future earnings.

Mr. Downe participates in:

- The Pension Fund Society of the Bank of Montreal ("PFS") (now BMO Canada Pension Plan), a federally-registered defined benefit pension plan for eligible Canadian employees
- a Retirement Allowance Agreement ("RAA"), a Bank-funded non-registered agreement that defines his overall pension arrangement, clarifies his entitlement if there is a change of control, and limits his annual pension benefit to US$1 million regardless of his length of service, salary level or bonuses.

Mr. Downe's overall annual normal retirement pension benefit is:

- equal to 2% of his pensionable earnings multiplied by his years of credited service. This formula is subject to an annual cap of US$1 million
- pensionable earnings for Mr. Downe are in U.S. dollars and capped at 145% of base salary. They are defined as the sum of his last 12 months' salary and the average of his highest five consecutive short-term incentive awards
- payable immediately subject to legislation, regulations and plan rules
- the portion that is paid from the PFS is paid as periodic payments. The remainder is converted into cash and paid in a lump sum according to the terms of the RAA.

Target for 2015

Mr. Flynn's target total direct compensation for 2015 did not change from 2014.

Performance in 2015

The CEO assessed Mr. Flynn's 2015 performance against his key individual objectives:

- Balanced investments in key initiatives and expense management
- Took on an important leadership role in the acquisition of the Transportation Finance business of General Electric Capital Corporation
- Enhanced financial controls and contributed to the overall risk/regulatory performance of the Bank
- Made substantial progress on talent and succession planning in the finance and communications functions.

Mr. Flynn performed well against his individual objectives. His sound judgment, balanced perspective and professional expertise are important to the Bank in meeting its strategic goals. His total direct compensation was based on the calculated incentive pool and as a result was below target as the Bank did not fully achieve its goals.

Incentive awards

Mr. Flynn's incentive awards were funded based on Bank performance. The Bank performed well but did not fully achieve its challenging goals for 2015. As a result, funding of the short-term incentive pool was below target. Funding of the mid-term and long-term incentives was also below target but to a lesser extent because the Bank's three-year TSR relative to the Canadian peer group was better than in 2014. See page 80 for details.

Target for 2016

Mr. Flynn's target total compensation was increased for 2016 with no change to his base salary. The Committee believes that this change better reflects the responsibilities of his role and positions his compensation competitively with the market.

Alignment with shareholder interests

One of the governing principles of BMO's compensation objectives is to align compensation with shareholder interests. Deferring compensation is one way to accomplish this, and 72% of Mr. Flynn's 2015 total variable compensation is deferred.

Share ownership

Mr. Flynn's exceeds his share ownership guidelines.

Mr. Flynn's total annual normal retirement pension benefit is:

- equal to 1.25% of his average pensionable salary (subject to certain limits), multiplied by his years of credited service, less an offset for a Canada Pension Plan ("CPP") entitlement, plus 1.25% of the average of his five highest consecutive short-term incentive awards, capped at 45% of his average pensionable salary (subject to certain limits) multiplied by his years of credited service plus 0.75% of his average pensionable salary multiplied by the years of contributory service, because he has chosen to enhance a portion of his pension benefit by making optional contributions
- payable at age 65 but can be paid up to 15 years earlier on a reduced basis (a reduction of 3% per year for each year that retirement precedes age 60 for the portion of the pension based on service accrued prior to July 1, 2007, and a reduction of 4% per year for each year that retirement precedes age 65 for the portion of the pension based on service accrued after June 30, 2007), subject to legislation, regulations and plan rules
- paid as periodic payments from both the PFS and the Supplementary Plan.

His total annual retirement pension benefit to date is $216,373, payable on a fully unreduced basis at age 65. This amount will increase with additional years of credited service and earnings. See page 96 for more information.

Mr. Techar performed well against his individual objectives this year. He demonstrated enterprise-wide leadership around BMO's vision to be the Bank that defines great customer experience, achieving customer loyalty gains and delivering on the Bank's brand promise. His total direct compensation was based on the calculated incentive pool and as a result was below target as the Bank did not fully achieve its goals.

Incentive awards

Mr. Techar's incentive pools were funded on Bank performance. The Bank performed well but did not fully achieve its challenging goals for 2015. As a result, funding of the short-term incentive pool was below target. Funding of the mid-term and long-term incentives was also below target but to a lesser extent because the Bank's three-year TSR relative to the Canadian peer group was better than in 2014. See page 80 for details.

Target for 2016

As a result of Mr. Techar's strong performance and leadership across the Bank, his target total direct compensation will increase for 2016, with no change to his base salary.

Alignment with shareholder interests

One of the governing principles of BMO's compensation objectives is to align compensation with shareholder interests. Deferring compensation is one way to accomplish this, and 80% of Mr. Techar's 2015 total variable compensation is deferred.

Mr. Techar exceeds his share ownership guidelines.

See pages 58 to 61 of the Annual Report for a full discussion of 2015 group objectives and achievements.

Mr. White delivered solid performance against his individual objectives for the year. His strong expertise and contributions are assets to the Bank. His total direct compensation was calculated below target as BMO Capital Markets did not fully achieve its goals.

Incentive awards

Mr. White's short-term incentive was funded 25% on Bank performance and 75% on BMO Capital Markets performance. Funding of the short-term incentive was below target based on Bank and operating group results. The mid-term and long-term incentive plan pools were funded 50% on three-year relative TSR and 50% on BMO Capital Markets performance. Funding was slightly below target this year based on Bank and operating group results. See page 80 for details.

Short-term incentive plan
BMO Capital Markets measures (a)	2015 performance (b)		Impact to pool funding
Adjusted net income	Below target	Adjusted net income was below target driven by lower than target revenues.	Below target
Adjusted efficiency ratio	Below target	Adjusted efficiency ratio of 64.2% was below target also due to lower than target incentives.
Adjusted return on capital – ROE and NEP	Below target	Adjusted ROE was below target driven by lower than target adjusted net income and higher than target capital.
Customer loyalty/experience	Exceeded target	Customer loyalty was slightly above target.

(a) Adjusted results exclude the amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets ($2 million after tax in 2015). Adjusted measures are non-GAAP and are disclosed more fully on page 33 of the Bank's 2015 Annual Report.

(b) For compensation purposes, an adjustment was made to BMO Capital Markets' results for measuring compensation to increase provisions for credit losses to reflect credit losses on an expected loss basis, rather than actual credit losses.

See page 67 for the Bank's performance measures under the short-term incentive plan.

Target for 2016

The Committee approved an increase to Mr. White's target total compensation for 2016, which included an increase in his base salary to $500,000. The Committee believes that this change better reflects the responsibilities of his role and positions his compensation competitively with the market.

- 2015: US$1.00 = Cdn$1.2547
- 2014: US$1.00 = Cdn$1.0937
- 2013: US$1.00 = Cdn$1.0235

(b) Includes RSUs awarded as part of a multi-year project initiative.

Target for 2015

Mr. Arès' target total direct compensation is competitive and did not change for 2015.

Performance in 2015

The CEO assessed Mr. Arès' 2015 performance against his key individual objectives:

- Delivered operational excellence and effective risk management
- Re-architected channel platforms, built analytic solutions and streamlined and digitized processes to create a distinctive customer experience and competitive advantage
- Built solutions that meet both immediate and evolving regulatory requirements
- Strengthened the people, processes and technology within Technology & Operations

Mr. Arès performed well against his individual objectives this year. His total direct compensation was below target this year reflecting that the Bank did not fully achieve its goals and includes an adjustment for internal alignment.

Incentive awards

Mr. Arès' short-term incentive award was funded 25% on Bank performance and 75% on the weighted average of all operating group measures. Funding of the short-term incentive pool was below target based on Bank and operating group results. Funding of the mid-term and long-term incentive plan pools was also below target this year for the same reasons. See page 80 for details.

Target for 2016

Mr. Arès' target total direct compensation is competitive and did not change for 2016. He will continue to be eligible for restricted share units as part of a multi-year project initiative.

Alignment with shareholder interests

One of the governing principles of BMO's compensation objectives is to align compensation with shareholder interests. Deferring compensation is one way to accomplish this, and 86% of Mr. Arès' 2015 total variable compensation is deferred.

Share ownership

Mr. Arès exceeds his share ownership guidelines.

Share ownership as at December 31, 2015
Required Multiple	Shares ($)	RSUs ($)	PSUs ($)	DSUs ($)	Total share ownership ($)	Total shares as a multiple of base salary
5.0	33,418	6,275,106	1,100,801	2,941,827	10,351,152	16.50

Pension

Mr. Arès participates in the following:

- The Pension Fund Society of the Bank of Montreal ("PFS") (now BMO Canada Pension Plan), a federally-registered defined benefit pension plan for eligible Canadian employees
- the Executive Supplementary Pension Plan ("Supplementary Plan"), a Bank-funded non-registered arrangement for executives, designated managing directors and designated officers
- the account-based provisions of the Employees' Retirement Plan of the Bank of Montreal/Harris ("Harris Plan"), a company plan offered to all eligible employees of BMO Harris, including executives.

Mr. Arès' overall annual normal retirement pension benefit is:

- equal to 1.25% of his average pensionable salary (subject to certain limits), multiplied by his years of credited service in the PFS and Supplementary Plans, less an offset for a Canada Pension Plan ("CPP") entitlement, plus 1.25% of the average of his five highest consecutive short-term incentive awards, capped at 45% of his average pensionable salary (subject to certain limits) multiplied by his years of credited service in the PFS and Supplementary Plans
- pension attributed to the PFS and Supplementary Plans is payable at age 65 but can be paid up to 10 years earlier on a reduced basis (a reduction of 4% per year for each year that retirement precedes age 65), subject to legislation, regulations and plan rules
- pension attributed to the Harris Plan is an account-based benefit. Annual credits provide 3% to 8% of eligible pay based on age and service points. Account balances accumulate annually with interest based on 10-year Treasury Bond rates with a minimum rate of 5.03%. The Harris Non-Qualified Plan provides for benefits in excess of statutory compensation limits for the Harris Qualified Plan
- portion paid from the PFS and Supplementary Plans paid as periodic payments
- portion from the Harris Qualified Plan is paid as either periodic payments or in a lump sum (Mr. Arès' option), the portion from the Harris Non-Qualified Plan is paid in a lump sum.

His total annual retirement pension benefit to date is $41,856, payable on an unreduced basis at age 65. This amount will increase with additional years of credited service and earnings. See page 96 for more information.

Cash compensation paid in U.S. dollars has been converted into Canadian dollars using an average exchange rate for each fiscal year: US$1.00 = Cdn$1.2547 in 2015, Cdn$1.0937 in 2014 and Cdn$1.0235 in 2013.

U.S. dollar pension values have been converted into Canadian dollar values at an October 31 spot rate for each fiscal year:

US$1.00 = Cdn$1.3075 in 2015, $1.1271 in 2014 and 2013, Cdn$1.0427 in 2013.

- (a) The option-based and share-based awards reported are the most recently approved, rather than those 12 months in arrears. The amounts shown are the values on the grant date in each of the 2015, 2014 and 2013 calendar years. The table does not show the value of option-based and share-based awards granted to each of the NEOs in fiscal 2013, from November 1 to December 31, 2012.
- The value of options granted during this period was: Mr. Downe $2,100,000, Mr. Flynn $508,500, Mr. Techar $630,000, Mr. White $255,780 and Mr. Arès $724,000.
 - The value of share-based awards during this period was: Mr. Downe $4,850,000, Mr. Flynn $1,186,500, Mr. Techar $1,470,000, Mr. White $1,894,220 and Mr. Arès $1,356,000.
- (b) A third party consultant prepared an estimate of the value of the options on the grant date, which was reviewed by the Bank's market risk group. The consultant uses a binomial pricing model, a commonly used valuation method. The consultant gave key assumptions used to determine the option fair value: historic dividend yield: 4.64%, historic share price volatility: 25.11%, risk free rate of return: 1.60% and period until exercise: 10 years. Based on these assumptions, the compensation value of each option granted to the NEOs in December 2015 is $13.90 per option. For accounting purposes, the option value methodology and assumptions used are consistent with the guidance in International Financial Reporting Standard 2, Share-Based Payments. A binomial option pricing model was used with the following assumptions: expected dividend yield 5.5%, expected share price volatility 19.8% - 20.0%, risk free rate of return 1.4% and expected period until exercise 6.5% years - 7.0 years. Based on these assumptions, the weighted-average value of each option granted in December 2015 is approximately $7.60 per option. For the options granted in December 2014 and December 2013, the compensation value was $15.62 and $13.72, respectively, and the accounting value was $7.45 and $6.36, respectively.
- (c) Executives can defer a portion of their short-term cash incentive award and receive DSUs instead. Mr. Techar is the only NEO who elected to defer a portion of his annual bonus at some point in the past three fiscal years, and last elected to defer 25% in 2013.
- (d) Pension value includes the current service cost and the impact of differences between actual compensation and compensation estimated for actuarial purposes (see page 96 for information about the pension plans and obligations). Mr. Downe's pension values for fiscal year 2013, 2014 and 2015 are zero because he did not accrue further pension benefits in those years as he reached his total pension entitlement cap of US$1,000,000 in fiscal 2012.
- (e) These amounts represent the Bank's contributions to the NEOs under the employee share purchase programs, plus the total value of perquisites and benefits where they are above $50,000, or 10% of the total annual salary (whichever is lower). Mr. Techar's 2015 amount includes an executive allowance of $31,000 and tax preparation fees of $29,732. Mr. Arès' 2015 amount includes a tax equalization payment of $767,641.
- (f) Includes restricted share units awarded as part of a multi-year project initiative.

- (a) The option exercise price is equivalent to the closing market value of BMO common shares on the trading day immediately preceding the date of grant.
- (b) The value of unexercised in-the-money options equals the difference between the grant price of the options and the closing price of the shares on the TSX on October 31, 2015 ($76.04). This includes options that have not yet vested or cannot be exercised because they are subject to 50% or 100% price condition hurdles that have not been reached.
- (c) The value of options exercised is the proceeds received in fiscal 2015 from the exercise of options granted in previous years, before deductions for taxes and commissions.
- (d) Total represents the aggregate value of annual cash bonuses the NEO voluntarily elected to defer into DSUs, awarded DSUs that have vested and the dividend equivalents earned as additional DSUs. Only the individual awarded DSU details are outlined in the column.

Incentive plan awards – Value vested or earned

The table below shows the value of option-based awards, share-based awards and non-equity incentive plan compensation that vested or was earned in fiscal 2015.

Name	Option-based awards – value vested during the year $(a)	Share-based awards – value vested during the year $(b)	Non-equity incentive plan compensation – value earned during the year $(c)
William A. Downe	2,884,554	6,546,767	1,361,700
Thomas E. Flynn	934,101	1,914,930	750,000

Darryl White	91,087	2,903,104	1,975,000
Jean-Michel Arès	776,712	1,359,600	580,000

- (a) The value of stock options that vested during the fiscal year is based on the difference between the grant price of the options and the closing share price on the TSX on the vesting date.
- (b) The value of share-based awards that vested during the fiscal year includes dividend equivalents earned on these awards during the period. Share-based awards are valued using a 20-day volume-weighted average of a BMO common share on the TSX calculated as at December 1, 2014 for RSU awards.
- (c) These are the annual cash incentive awards for 2015. This table includes the full amount of the annual cash bonus even if a portion was voluntarily deferred into DSUs.

Retirement benefits

Defined benefit pension plan table

Four of the NEOs participate in a defined benefit pension plan sponsored by the Bank. Mr. White is eligible to participate in the Nesbitt Burns Employee Retirement Plan which is a defined contribution plan, however, he is currently not a member of this plan. The table below shows the pension benefits under the defined benefit pension plans, including the annual pension payable to the NEOs for three pension-eligibility time frames – year end, estimated at normal retirement and estimated at age 65 – and accrued obligations determined on a defined benefit basis.

Name	Number of years credited service	Annual benefits payable $(a)(b)			Accrued obligation at start of year $(e)	Compensatory change $(f)	Non-compensatory change $(f)	Accrued obligation at year end $(e)
		At year end (c)	At normal retirement (d)	At age 65
William A. Downe	32.42	1,307,500(g)	1,307,500(g)	1,307,500(g)	17,803,333	0	2,249,010	20,052,343

Jean-Michel Arès	5.58	41,856(i)	153,274(i)	153,274(i)	259,232	50,570	56,551	366,353

- (a) Annual benefits payable include all pension entitlements from the Bank.
- (b) All annual benefits shown for Mr. Flynn, Mr. Techar and Mr. Arès reflect earnings as of October 31, 2015.
- (c) Annual benefits payable reflect the pension benefit earned as at year end and do not reflect the reductions of benefits applied in the event of early retirement.
- (d) According to their pension arrangements, Mr. Downe and Mr. Techar have a normal retirement age of 60. A portion of Mr. Flynn's pension will not be reduced at age 60 and his total pension will not be reduced at his normal retirement age of 65. The amount shown is the amount payable at age 60.
- (e) Accrued obligation is the present value of the accrued benefit, calculated using the same actuarial assumptions and methods used to calculate the pension liabilities in the consolidated financial statements. The assumptions reflect a best estimate of future events, so the values shown may not be directly comparable to similar estimates of pension liabilities disclosed by other corporations. Also, if an NEO is entitled to a lump sum payment on retirement, the lump sum payment may be significantly different compared to the accrued obligation due to differences between the lump sum assumptions (which depend on economic conditions at the time of retirement) and the assumptions used to prepare the consolidated financial statements.
- (f) Compensatory change consists mainly of the service cost (the present value of the additional benefit earned during the year by virtue of accruing service) and differences between actual compensation and compensation estimated for actuarial purposes. Non-compensatory change includes interest on the obligation and changes in assumptions, changes in exchange rates, non-compensatory plan experience (such as retirement behaviour other than as expected) and employee contributions.
- (g) A portion of Mr. Downe's annual pension benefit will be payable as an annuity from The Pension Fund Society of the Bank of Montreal (PFS) (now BMO Canada Pension Plan). The balance of the total annual pension entitlement will be converted to a lump sum on retirement. The annual pension is subject to a total pension entitlement cap of US$1,000,000. The Cdn$1,307,500 annual benefit payable has been converted from US$1,000,000 at the exchange rate outlined in the notes to the Summary compensation table.
- (h) A portion of Mr. Techar's annual pension benefit will be payable from the PFS, a portion from the Harris Qualified Plan may be paid either as periodic payments or in a lump sum (Mr. Techar's option), and a portion of the Harris Non-Qualified Plan paid as a lump sum. The balance of the total annual pension entitlement will be converted to a lump sum on retirement. The benefit amounts shown have been converted from U.S. dollars at the exchange rate outlined in the notes to the Summary compensation table.
- (i) A portion of Mr. Arès' annual pension benefit will be payable from the PFS and Supplementary Plans, a portion of the Harris Qualified Plan may be paid either as periodic payments or in a lump sum (Mr. Arès' option). The balance of his entitlement from the Harris Non-Qualified Plan will be payable as a lump sum. The benefit amounts shown have been converted from U.S. dollars at the exchange rate outlined in the notes to the Summary compensation table.

- (a) All granted DSUs awarded on or after December 2013 that are vested will also be forfeited on termination with cause.
- (b) Limited to Mr. Downe and Mr. Techar, termination without cause includes voluntary termination by the executive within 24 months of a change in control where one of the following has occurred: (i) a material reduction of the role, responsibilities and/or duties of the executive or of the person to whom they report, (ii) a material reduction of the executive's base salary, or (iii) a change of geographic location.

The table below shows the estimated incremental payments to each NEO at, following, or in connection with each of the termination scenarios below as at October 31, 2015 (a).

	Total	0	0	2,344	0	1,062,456

- (a) The estimated incremental benefit received by the NEO excludes statutory benefits. Calculations assume the NEO ceased to be an employee on October 31, 2015. Values are based on the closing share price on the TSX on October 31, 2015 ($76.04). Incremental payments in U.S. dollars have been converted at US$1.00 = Cdn$1.3075.
- Severance payments for Mr. Downe and Mr. Techar are governed by their respective Retirement Allowance Agreements and termination without cause includes voluntary termination by the executive within 24 months of a change in control where one of the following has occurred: (i) a material reduction of the role, responsibilities and/or duties of the executive or of the person to whom they report, (ii) a material reduction of the executive's base salary, or (iii) a change of geographic location. Common law would determine severance payments for Mr. Flynn, Mr. White and Mr. Arès.
 - Stock option values shown are the in-the-money amount of options vesting earlier than normal. Accelerated vesting of all stock options would occur if the NEO's employment terminates, other than for cause, within 24 months of the change of control and all options expire within 90 days thereafter. Options do not vest automatically on a change of control without termination of employment.
 - Pension payments for Mr. Downe and Mr. Techar are governed by their respective Retirement Allowance Agreements. Mr. Downe has reached the US$1,000,000 pension cap and no additional amounts are payable under his Retirement Allowance Agreement. Payments for Mr. Flynn are governed by The Pension Fund Society of the Bank of Montreal (now BMO Canada Pension Plan) and Executive Supplementary Pension Plan, and Mr. Arès by a combination of The Pension Fund Society of the Bank of Montreal, the Executive Supplementary Pension Plan and the Employees' Retirement Plan of the Bank of Montreal/Harris. Mr. White is eligible to participate in the Nesbitt Burns Employee Retirement Plan which is a defined contribution plan, however he is currently not a member of this plan.
- (b) For the definition of a change of control for the stock option plan, refer to page 78. For the purposes of the RAAS for Mr. Downe and Mr. Techar, a change of control is a merger, amalgamation, consolidation of operations or purchase of the bank. The RAAS require a change of control and termination without cause in order for severance payments to be made.

Additional information about the long-term incentive plans

Stock option plans

The Bank's Stock Option Plan and the Marshall & Ilsley ("M&I") stock option plans BMO assumed when it acquired M&I are the only compensation plans that the Bank issues equity securities under.

Stock Option Plan – Shareholders approved this plan in 1995, and approved an amendment to increase the number of shares that may be issued under the plan at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders on March 3, 2009. In fiscal 2014, the Board amended the Stock Option Plan to expand the circumstances under which the benefit to be realized from a grant of stock options after December 2013 may be clawed back to include where either the Bank or its U.S. operations suffers a significant financial loss. The Stock Option Plan was also amended to change the expiry date of options from three years to five years following termination of employment due to death or permanent disability for options granted after October 2014, to be consistent with the expiry date of options following retirement. Minor changes were also made to the plan text to make the language more consistent. These changes did not require shareholder approval under the terms of the Plan.

Non-Officer Director Stock Option Plan – Shareholders approved this plan in 2002. The Board decided to discontinue granting options effective November 1, 2003 and the Plan is no longer active. The last options that were granted under this Plan expired on February 28, 2013.

Dilution impact of long-term incentive plan

At any time, there are a number of options available to be issued, plus options outstanding that have not yet been exercised. These are known as overhang. To reduce the future dilutive effects stock options have on share value, the Committee has established a guideline limiting overhang to 7.5% or less of the total number of issued and outstanding shares. The Bank also monitors the outstanding number of options (dilution) and the number of options issued each year (burn rate).

The table below shows these key measures, and the management of stock option awards to minimize the dilutive effect on shareholders.

	Measure (shown as a % of issued and outstanding shares as of October 31, 2015)
	2015	2014	2013
Overhang the total number of options available to be issued, plus all options outstanding that have not yet been exercised, expressed as a percentage of 642,583,341, the total number of issued and outstanding shares at the end of the fiscal year	2.55%	2.71%	3.13%
Dilution the number of options issued but not exercised, expressed as a percentage of the total number of issued and outstanding shares at the end of the fiscal year	1.88%	2.05%	2.32%
Burn rate the number of stock options issued during the year, expressed as a percentage of the total number of issued and outstanding shares at the end of the fiscal year	0.10%	0.25%	0.31%

Securities authorized for issuance under the equity compensation plans

The table below shows (at October 31, 2015):

- shares to be issued when outstanding options under the various stock option plans are exercised
- remaining number of shares available for issue under the Stock Option Plan (there are no further shares available for issue under the M&I stock option plans).

Shareholders have approved all equity compensation plans that involve issuing shares.

Plan category	Number of securities to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options, warrants and rights (a)	Weighted average exercise price of outstanding options, warrants and rights (b)	Number of securities remaining available for future issuance under equity compensation plans (excluding securities reflected in column (a))
Equity compensation plans approved by the security holders	12,111,153	74.08	4,275,858
Equity compensation plans not approved by the security holders	nil	nil	nil
Total	12,111,153	74.08	4,275,858

(a) Includes outstanding M&I stock options that were converted into options to purchase shares when the M&I acquisition closed, in accordance with the purchase agreement.

(b) Includes the weighted-average exercise price for the converted M&I stock options.

The number of shares issued to insiders, within any one-year period, under all security-based compensation arrangements, cannot exceed 10% of the issued and outstanding shares. The maximum number of shares reserved for issue under options to any one participant cannot exceed 5% of the shares then issued and outstanding.
Committee guideline (overhang)	The Committee adopted a guideline that the total number of options available for issue, plus all options outstanding that have not yet been exercised, should be 7.5% or less of the total number of the Bank's issued and outstanding shares.

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURE

This section of the management proxy circular includes information about compensation plans and employees that can have a material impact on the Bank's risk exposure ("material plans and employees") and is consistent with the Basel Committee Pillar 3 Disclosure Requirements.

The Committee is accountable for establishing and approving compensation policies and philosophies for BMO Financial Group's material plans and employees. Its overall approach is consistent with the approach it applies to executive compensation, with appropriate modifications to comply with requirements in local jurisdictions:

- tie compensation awards and payouts to business performance, strategy and shareholder returns, while balancing risk
- consider individual performance when determining variable pay
- require material risk-taking employees to defer a portion of their variable compensation.

(See the Compensation Discussion and Analysis starting on page 59 for information about executive compensation and the Committee's role.)

Material plans

The Committee approved criteria for identifying material plans after receiving input from the Bank's Risk, Audit, Finance, Human Resources and Compliance groups.

The risk level of a business (based on the Risk group's assessment) and its total annual compensation spend determine whether or not a compensation plan is considered material. Generally, higher risk businesses and larger spends on annual compensation would lead to classification as a material plan.

The Committee must approve:

- the annual list of material plans
- changes to material plans, after review by the U.S. and Enterprise Compensation Oversight Committees and CEO (see pages 60 and 61 for more details on the U.S. and Enterprise Compensation Oversight Committees)
- funding for the variable incentive pools, after review by the U.S. and Enterprise Compensation Oversight Committees and CEO.

Material risk-taking employees

The Committee has approved the following categories of employees as its material risk-taking employees: all Senior Vice-Presidents and above in the Bank and any BMO Capital Markets employees whose actions could have a material impact on the Bank's risk.

The following standards apply to the compensation of material risk taking employees:

- non-financial metrics (such as risk limits exceeded and unsatisfactory audit reports) are consolidated in performance assessments and compensation decisions
- deferred compensation for this group is 40% to 60% of their total compensation. Beginning in 2016, to better align with the market and FSB Principles, deferred compensation will be based on a percentage of total variable compensation.
- variable compensation reflects pay for performance and appropriate risk measures.

Compensation tables for material risk-taking employees

Equity awards granted have been converted into Canadian dollars using the November month-end spot rate of US$1.00=Cdn$1.3353 in fiscal 2015, and US$1.00=Cdn$1.1440 and £1=Cdn$1.7890 in fiscal 2014.
